Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17

Divisions in the Community

Divisions may show up in any church community. They are signs of the sin we strive to overcome. People argue about the Mass, complain about the preaching, challenge the leadership, get angry at the staff, look down on the music, sneer at the school kids, cringe at infants, and laugh at the elderly. Church communities may be so distracted by the people they see that they neglect the people they do not see: the poor, the unchurched, the homebound—those who need to hear the message of Christ, but who do not because Christians are too busy complaining about one another.

In first century Corinth, Christians were making divisions along the lines of the ministers who baptized them. "I belong to Paul," says one. "I belong to Apollos," says another. "I belong to Cephas," says still another. Um, don't we all belong to Christ? But you will still hear voices of division: "I go to the 9:00 Mass." "I sing with the adult choir." "My kids go to Catholic school." It is as if those who worship, sing, or get educated elsewhere belong to an entirely different family.

Paul urged the Corinthians to have no divisions. He wished them to be united in the same mind and in the same purpose.

When churches are divided, it often means that members are also privileged: privileged not to see the burdens of the needy, privileged to demand that things go their way, privileged to think that local problems merit more attention than global ones. Paul calls us to one mind and one purpose.

You Are Loved. Believe it.

Being accepted by Christ and living within His merciful Heart will lead you to discover how much He loves you. He does love you more than you can imagine. Let yourself begin to discover that love. Savor it, believe it, understand it and seek it all the more (See Diary #16).

Spend time today pondering one simple fact. You are loved. You are loved by our Divine Lord Jesus with a greater intensity than you could ever imagine. Sometimes we fail to recognize this fact and, as a result, fail to let His love enter in. Ponder His love for you today and let it begin to sink in more deeply.

Lord, I know that You love me but I also know that I do not understand the full extent of Your perfect love. Lord, help me to see Your love more clearly and to allow that love to sink into the depth of my soul. Jesus, I love You. Jesus, I trust in You.

(This free reflection can be found at <https://divinemercy.life/2026/01/20/reflection-21-you-are-loved-believe-it-2/>)

Dear Friends in Christ,

Apparently my parishioners really enjoy it when I yell at you all, based on the comments from last weekend's homily as I emphasized St. John's the Baptist line, "Behold the Lamb of God. Behold Him Who takes away the sins of the world." I wonder if it was the yelling or the emphasis on that part of the Mass, or a combination of the two?

Whatever the reasons may be, I believe God the Holy Spirit is inspiring me to give more homilies/sermons on different parts of the Mass. Anything to help you all have better engagement and focus during Mass, the Sacrifice, and the Eucharist I am certainly all in for promoting. Pray for me that God the Holy Spirit may help to guide me more in how I can be more beneficially instructive to you all for this end.

I have a homework assignment for you all. Your primary identity is that of being a child of God the Father. This simple yet profound truth can alter how you view life. Its richness is vast, literally infinite while its truth is powerful in its simplicity. The homework assignment is easy: reflect or even "sit" in the awesomeness of what it means to be a child of God the Father for one minute everyday this week. Just one minute. Once the week is up, see/write the conclusions you have had, and how your relationship with God the Father is different by the end of the week.

In Christo et Maria,
Father Vogel

COMMANDMENT OF THE MONTH
 FOR JANUARY 2026

If you love me, you will keep my commandments.
 John 14:15

WEEK 4

The 5th Commandment
 "You Shall Not Kill"

The 5th Commandment tells us, "Do not kill." However, today's culture has diminished the sacredness of human life, of parenthood, and of family. Too often, the news headlines report of yet another assault on human life. How do we restore the honor and respect for what God has created in His image and likeness, as holy and sacred?

The 5th Commandment is one of ten vital defenses for restoring our culture to one that honors and respects life, parenthood, and family. The full set of ten defenses are the Ten Commandments that teach us to love our neighbor as we love ourselves. But to live them well, to teach them to the children in your life and transform our culture to one of life, you need to know them and know them well. Not just as a list of rules, but as God's recipe for a joy-filled and wonderful life.

Restoring society's respect for life starts with you and your family. Then, along with other families at St Bridget Parish, as you learn and live the Commandments, collectively you will begin to transform your community. As other parishes throughout your area and across the country join you in restoring God's truth and the timeless wisdom of His Ten Commandments, society will be transformed to one that values the gift of life.

To begin restoring the honor and respect of life, parenthood and family, go to <https://ifuloveme.org/register> or scan the code. Then, click your parish/school name in the list displayed. Access is free for all St Bridget Parish members.

Prayer Intention for January
 Dear Jesus, Thank you for the gift of the life that you have given each of us. Help us to increase our love, honor and respect for the lives of every person.

Catechism of the Catholic Church

64 Through the prophets, God forms his people in the hope of salvation, in the expectation of a new and everlasting Covenant intended for all, to be written on their hearts. The prophets proclaim a radical redemption of the People of God, purification from all their infidelities, a salvation which will include all the nations. Above all, the poor and humble of the Lord will bear this hope. Such holy women as Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, Miriam, Deborah, Hannah, Judith and Esther kept alive the hope of Israel's salvation. the purest figure among them is Mary.
