The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

1 Corinthians 10:16-17

Real Communion

“The Body of Christ” refers to the church as well as to the Eucharist. When we share in the Body and Blood of Christ, we have communion with God and with one another.

Jesus is present to us in many ways. We hear his voice in the gospel. We experience his love in our community. We receive him sacramentally in the Eucharist. We are called the Body of Christ because Christ dwells with us.

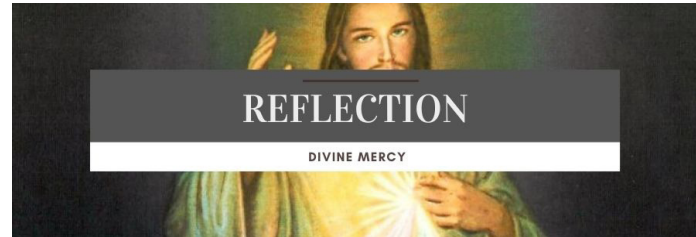

St. Paul wrote the Corinthians, “Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.”

When we receive communion we experience our communion with one another. Many though we are, we are one in Christ. Just as many grains of wheat make one loaf, just as one loaf is shared by many people, just as many people become one by sharing that one loaf, so do we many become one in Christ. Jesus unites our community when we share our communion together.

Paul’s words were especially significant to the Corinthians. He began this letter addressing the divisions in their church and calling the faithful there to unity. At this point in his letter, we understand why. Their unity in the church is critical to the integrity of their worship.

If our Eucharist is to be sincere, our communion must be real. We eat the Body of Christ. We drink the Blood of Christ. We are the Body of Christ.

Silent and Humble Adoration

Imagine the scene of our Blessed Mother in the humble state of the Nativity. She had no home at that moment other than this place where animals gathered. Yet in the stillness of that holy night, she was at home as she gazed upon her Child with the deepest adoration and love. She gazed in silence as He lay sleeping on the hay. This must be an image of your soul. You are called to enter into the humility of the inner dwelling place of your heart. Deep within, you must see this Precious Child, resting in peace. Remain silent and attentive, keep your eyes fixed on Him in adoration, and allow yourself to become consumed with delight at His presence within your soul (See Diary #785).

Reflect upon your humble and silent prayer. As you sit quietly before Jesus, or even as you go about the duties of your day, are you attentive to the divine presence of your Savior living within you? Do you see Him sleeping there in the stillness? Our souls must become a place of prayer and silence so that we can humbly keep our eyes upon our Lord within this holy dwelling place. If you keep your eyes upon Him, as He dwells silently within you, you will then go about your day with the peace and joy that only this holy Child can bring.

Lord, bring humility and stillness to my heart. May I discover You resting there in peace and adore You with a profound love. May I always keep my eyes upon You and never become distracted by the many temptations of this world. May the adoration I offer You who dwell within me become a source of the love and service I offer to all. Jesus, I trust in You.

(This free reflection can be found at: <https://divinemeracy.life/2026/06/02/reflection-154-silent-and-humble-adoration-2/>)

Dear Friends in Christ,

Corpus Christi Sunday. What a weekend. What an absolutely awesome weekend. If there’s ever a weekend to celebrate outside of Christmas and Easter, it is this weekend. Corpus Christi Sunday weekend in which we celebrate the awesome truth that in the Eucharist is the Most Holy Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of our Lord and Savior, the Word made Flesh, the God-Man, Jesus Christ.

If one is a Catholic, your life centralizes around the Eucharist. Is that the case for me?

We all know we are supposed to love God. We all know that He is our Savior. We all know that He will give us our personal judgement once we pass away. With all this in mind, is my love for God as such that I yearn for Him in the Eucharist?

Can I not just wait until I can make it to church again on the weekend because I know I get to see God in the Eucharist? If not, why not?

Do I acknowledge His Presence when I drive by any Catholic church by making the Sign of the Cross?

Do I try to see Him, even if only briefly, one additional time during the week in addition to my weekend Mass?

To be a Catholic is to be madly in love with God in the Eucharist. Am I madly in love with God in the Eucharist? What do I need to change so that I am madly in love with God in the Eucharist?

To be a Catholic is to be madly in love with God in the Eucharist. Because He is madly in love with me.

In Christo et Maria,

Father Vogel

Thank you for your understanding as we implement this new security measure at St. Bridget. Our priority is to ensure a safe and welcoming environment for everyone attending Mass. Although we will lock the doors after Mass begins, we will have staff available to assist and admit those who may arrive a few minutes late. We kindly ask that parishioners use the main entrance, as access from the lower level Ledwidge Hall will not be available. Please know that exit from the building will always be accessible in case of emergencies. Your feedback is valuable to us, and we encourage you to share any thoughts or concerns so that we can make necessary adjustments and maintain a secure atmosphere for our community.
