"Do not go into pagan territory or enter a Samaritan town.
Go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.
As you go, make this proclamation: "The kingdom of

Romans 5:6-11

Good News for Sinners

Reconciliation is a miracle. Whenever enemies make peace, the impossible seems to happen. Humans are capable of tremendous love, but we are also capable of enduring enmity. It is hard for two parties to retrace their steps, to understand the other position and to come to a new level of peace. But it happens, and it always seems to be a miracle.

If miracles are to happen, you would expect them to reward those who are good. You would think that those who live in peace would receive the added blessings of God's love.

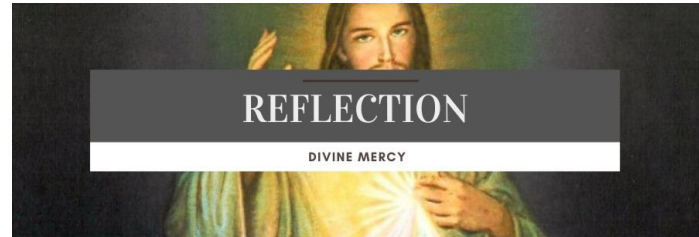

But the miracle of reconciliation often comes differently. It often comes when one or both parties are at fault. It comes to those who have sinned. Reconciliation happens to those who seem not to deserve it.

God's ways are not our ways. God sent Jesus to reconcile us, even though we human beings are sinners. And the miracle does not stop there. Having been reconciled to God, having experienced forgiveness, we can experience the joy of salvation.

St. Paul wrote to the Romans, "Indeed, if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more, once reconciled, will we be saved by his life."

When we find ourselves at odds with someone, we tend to withhold reconciliation. We avoid making peace because we feel hurt, because we feel the offender does not deserve peace. God thinks differently. God created reconciliation precisely with sinners in mind.

The Singular Love Given to You

When pondering the love and the Mercy of God, it is tempting to see His love in a more general way, as if it were something evenly distributed to all people in the same way. But God's love for you is something so much more than a general gift to all people. It is deeply personal and singular, being offered specifically for you, out of love for you. God does not see you as one of many; rather, He sees you as a singular focus of His love. Each and every person is loved by God in this singular and unique way. Thus, you are loved as His one precious child for whom He has offered His life. Know that God loves you as you. He knows every detail of your life and pours His grace upon you (See Diary #824).

How aware are you of the unique and singular love God has for you? His love is personal in that you are an object of His burning Heart of Mercy. God is fully capable of loving each and every person in this way, seeing each one as His precious child and loving each person in their uniqueness and even in their sins. Let yourself, today, experience this personal and abundant love of God in your life. It will sustain you in all things and help you to always know that you are loved above all.

Lord, I love You and adore You and thank You for loving me with a perfect love. Help me to receive Your unique gift of love offered to me as Your precious child. May I return this love for You by acknowledging You as my one and only Lord and God. Jesus, I trust in You.

(This free reflection can be found at: <https://divinemercury.life/2026/06/02/reflection-154-silent-and-humble-adoration-2/>)

Dear Friends in Christ,

"The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest." This line from our Lord is one of the most spot on realities today.

The "laborers" are the Catholic priests. The "harvest" is the lay faithful. The "master of the harvest" is God Almighty Himself.

My friends, I have been a priest for 11 years, and I cannot emphasize enough the reality of the shortage of priests. It's safe to say that every priest has the equivalent of 3-5 jobs depending on how many parishes they have and how many roles they carry out for the diocese/the bishop as well. We are human and sinners too, meaning, we too have plenty of nights that we do not sleep well, nights in which we are forced to stay up late because of helping out parishioners, etc. We are constantly driving from one location to another. We are complimented and ridiculed, told we are doing great, told we are doing a terrible job, told that we need to do this and that at the parish, told we need to visit people more at the hospitals, nursing homes, homebound while also balancing out baptism classes, funeral planning, wedding planning, extra liturgies for special days throughout the year, annulments, emails, text messages, regular mail, in person meetings, etc.

In short, we need more priests.

Please pray for more priests. Every. Single. Day.

Us priests, we're tired because there are so few of us which means the demands are higher from us as we are spread so thin.

Pray for us priests everyday to carry out with joy the priesthood of Jesus Christ. Additionally, pray for more priests: Every. Single. Day.

In Christo et Maria,

Father Vogel

Catechism of the Catholic Church

“1509 “Heal the sick!” The Church has received this charge from the Lord and strives to carry it out by taking care of the sick as well as by accompanying them with her prayer of intercession. She believes in the life-giving presence of Christ, the physician of souls and bodies. This presence is particularly active through the sacraments, and in an altogether special way through the Eucharist, the bread that gives eternal life and that St. Paul suggests is connected with bodily health.”

St. Bridget Safety Committee News •••

Thank you for your understanding as we implement this new security measure at St. Bridget. Our priority is to ensure a safe and welcoming environment for everyone attending Mass. Although we will lock the doors after Mass begins, we will have staff available to assist and admit those who may arrive a few minutes late. We kindly ask that parishioners use the main entrance, as access from the lower level Ledwidge Hall will not be available. Please know that exit from the building will always be accessible in case of emergencies. Your feedback is valuable to us, and we encourage you to share any thoughts or concerns so that we can make necessary adjustments and maintain a secure atmosphere for our community.

Thanks,
St. Bridget Safety Committee
