St. Bridget Parish
April 9 & 10, 2016

Third Sunday of Easter

Jesus said to them, “Come, have breakfast.” And none of the disciples dared to ask him, “Who are you?” because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish.  - Jn 21:12-15

SHARE YOUR PRAYER
Lord, help me listen and follow the directions of my parents.

SOMETHING TO DRAW
Draw Jesus near the apostles in a boat with a net full of fish.

FISHING
CATCH JUMPED CHARCOAL
BOAT BREAD RISED

PRAY
Read the Gospel and Color

After Jesus rose from the dead, he must have looked very different. Jesus helped his apostles catch a lot of fish, just as he had done before. Jesus invited his friends to eat with him, and he still broke his bread to share it in the same way he always had. The disciples still recognized Jesus by the things he did.

Mission for the Week
 Invite a friend over to eat dinner with your family, so you can share food just like Jesus did.
“Our Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend was the most joyful and stimulating time of our lives. We had the chance to see how each of us needs to love and be loved and it has made such a difference in our relationship ever since.”

2016 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

Nothing graces the Christian soul so much as mercy: mercy as shown chiefly towards the poor, that you may treat them as sharers in common with you in the produce of nature, which brings forth the fruits of the earth for use to all. Please contribute generously to “Blessed Are the Merciful” the 2016 Annual Catholic Appeal (in past years, the Bishop’s Annual Appeal) in support of parish and diocesan programs and ministries. Go online to www.kcsjgives.org for more information or use the form available in the Catholic Key. To make a gift from an IRA or of appreciated stock, mutual fund shares and fits of grain, call, Greg Vranicar at (816)714-2363

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is committed to combating sexual abuse in the Church. If you are a victim of sexual abuse, or if you observe or suspect sexual abuse:

1) Call the Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1-800-392-3738 (if the victim is currently under the age of 18), and
2) Contact your local law enforcement agency or call 911, and
3) After reporting to these civil and law enforcement authorities, report suspected sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to Diocesan Ombudsman, Jennifer Valenti, at 816-812-2500 or Jennifer.Valenti@att.net, if the abuse involves a priest, deacon, employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph. The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families. Please contact Victim Advocate Mary Bullmann at 816-392-0011 or bullmann@diosekcsj.org for more information.

From Msgr. Murphy

We continue to hear Easter stories this weekend. Our first reading shows the Apostles being told by the Sanhedrin never to mention Jesus again. Our Gospel has the Risen Lord appear to the Apostles at the Sea of Tiberius. For me, the lesson is that you never know where the Risen Lord will appear so keep looking for him! Well my Mom made it! This Saturday, April 9, she turned 100. As she said to me recently: “I guess, Robert that this birthday and I are going to have to go face to face”. She didn’t go to Catholic schools but she “schooled” her children and grandchildren in the Catholic faith. When I leave her each week, we always pray together.

This coming Friday Bishop Johnston will be here to confirm our Confirmation class for 2016 as well as those from Our Lady of Lourdes in Harrisonville and one student from St. Patrick’s Parish in Holden. He likes to visit with the Confirmandi and their sponsors an hour ahead of times. This is not the “official” visit of Bishop Johnston. As you may have heard, he is visiting a different parish every weekend. I’ll let you know when he plans to come to St. Bridget.

Msgr. Robert Murphy

A Mass honoring all couples in the diocese celebrating 50 years of marriage in the year 2016 will be celebrated by Bishop Johnston at 2:00 pm on Sunday, June 5, 2016 at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. The liturgy will be followed with a dessert reception. This celebration will include all couples who have celebrated or will be celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary between January 1, 2016 and December 31, 2016. If you were married in 1966, please call the parish office this week so that you can be acknowledged. You will be acknowledged even if you cannot attend the event.
