Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven.” — Mt 5:11-12

Prayer

Draw Jesus telling children to be fair, be forgiving, and be a peacemaker.

Something to Draw

Lord, help me forgive myself and others.

Sharing the Gospel

God sees the loving things you do. When you show kindness to others, especially when they don’t deserve it, your kindness will come back to you. When you see others fighting, and you help them get along, you show that you are God’s child. When you are gentle, not bossy, you make God smile. Even when it is hard, keep on doing what’s right. One day in heaven God will reward you for the good choices you make.

Mission for the Week

God loves peacemakers. The next time you are tempted to argue with someone, think of ways to get along instead.

February 4 and in

All around us are people God has chosen for ministry. They may not be the best at what they do, but they do it because God wants it done.

God does not always choose the best. God chooses people anyway. God wants you for something too. Have you ever said no because you thought you could not do it? Might it be that God will do it, once you say yes?

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; he began to speak, and taught them, saying: “Blessed are the poor in spirit...” Matthew 5:3

The teachings of Jesus, encapsulated in the Sermon on the Mount, have inspired and encouraged and lead people through the centuries. The poor in spirit, the needy, the outcast, the dispossessed, the “invisible people”... this inspires us as well. Let us look around for the poor in spirit.
