Sin brings out the worst in us. It comes from inner weakness. It produces the desire to cover it up. If others remain ignorant of our sin, they will think more kindly of us.

The Blame Game

Genesis 3:9-15

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time B 1

From Msgr. Murphy:

WELCOME FATHER CURT VOGEL! You are a blessing. Please know of my prayers and support.

I want to take this opportunity to thank a few people who have been a blessing to me in the past 11 years. Linda Ochs. She has done so much from Youth Director to Confirmation to Women of Faith. Deacon Gary. His deep love of the Church was evident in everything he did from Bible Study to Confirmation to the Sacraments. Cathy Vogel and "Mel" Thornsberry. Both ladies brought so much love to our children in the School of Religion. Lisa Thomas. Lisa stepped in to take the Youth Group and brought great love for the young people. Bill Kennedy. Bill has brought such passion and faith to the Edge Group and to the Men's Group. Laurie Himmelberg. Laurie has worked so hard to build community at St. Bridget from the Autumn Fest to Trivia Night to the Mardi Gras and so many more. And Tim Long. Tim is more than a Business Manager. Everyone knows that. For me personally, Tim has been my confidante, my sounding board and my friend. For the person who said: “Everyone is replaceable” I say: “You’ve never met Tim”

I run a real risk “naming names”. But as I look over this congregation I have many, many more people to thank. Thank you and God bless you for your shared of your time, talent, and tithe.

I’ll be back for Mass on Sunday, June 24. See you then. Let’s pray for one another.

Msgr. Robert Murphy

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time B 1

Genesis 3:9-15

The Blame Game

Sin brings out the worst in us. It comes from inner weakness. It produces the desire to cover it up. If others remain ignorant of our sin, they will think more kindly of us. So we hide the sin. Or we lie about it. Or we blame someone else. Sin brings out the worst.

When Adam and Eve talked with God about their sin, you could hear them trying to get off easy. They blamed someone else. Adam blamed Eve. Eve blamed the serpent. Neither of them accepted responsibility for their actions.

The Book of Genesis remembers our first parents as pioneering, precious souls who lived and loved in paradise. But it also remembers the worst of them: the sin and the cover-up.

In those words we Christians read a prophecy of the coming of Christ. He is the offspring, the Word made flesh, who defeats Satan and his heirs.

Yes, sin brings out the worst in us, but it brought out the best in God: our salvation in Jesus Christ.
