Prayer

Jesus, you died for me to be forgiven. Thank you.

Something to Draw

Draw Jesus talking with his disciples.

Sharing the Gospel

“Would you like to trade with me?” You might hear that a lot in the school cafeteria or at snack time. Kids may want to exchange one kind of food for one they like better. In today’s Gospel, Jesus asks the same question. “Would you like to trade with me?” Give Jesus the toys and activities that take your mind off God. Those things don’t last. Jesus will trade you for something better. He will give you lasting life and happiness with God.

Mission for the Week

Be very honest with yourself. Are any of your toys or activities more important to you than Jesus? If they are, ask God to change your heart, so you can love him the most.
Garrison Keillor has written about Fathers a number of times. In an amusing manner, he wrote, “A father often turns a stony face to his sons, berates them, shakes his antlers, paws the ground, snorts, and runs them into underbrush. The father of a daughter is nothing but a high-class hostage. When his daughter puts her arm over his shoulder and says, ‘Daddy, I need to ask you something’
he is a pat of butter in hot frying pan.”

In a more profound manner, he wrote, “Nothing you do for children is ever wasted. They seem not to notice us, hoveryng, avert our eyes, and they seldom offer thanks
but what we do for them is never wasted.”

A Catholic Father has a number of important attributes:
1) He keeps holy the Lord’s Day. His children must see faith in our Catholic traditions alive so that they might be passed on. As a family, we always prayed the rosary in the house every day. Now, you can have more control of your donating activity.

Those who would like to participate should be single Catholic women between the ages of 18 and 47. The event is free for those participating.

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time C 1
Zechariah 12:10-11; 13:1

Suffering with Purpose

You can put up with suffering if it has some purpose. If sacrifice gives you gratification later on, you can take it. If doing without helps someone you love a little more, you can do it. If someone now will lighten the pain of someone else later, you can handle it.

Suffering without purpose is harder to sustain. When the suffering produces no earthly good, it is hard to understand.
When someone inflicts suffering on us out of vengeance or hate, it is hard to forgive. Some suffering is more difficult than other suffering.

Zechariah promised the people that God would pour out a spirit of grace and that the inhabitants of Jerusalem would have a fountain to purify them from sin. But all this would come at a price—the price of suffering.
