“A light for revelation to the Gentiles and glory for your people Israel” (Lk 32)

Hello and welcome to “Opening the Word” for the fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time, the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. Here’s the scene, it’s forty days after Jesus is born, and Mary goes to present Jesus to the temple; a ritual for the presentation of the first born. While she goes up there a stranger, an old man, someone she has never seen before comes up to her. The man is named Simeon and he takes the child out of Mary’s arms, raises him up, and says now at last your “servant can go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel (Lk 2:29-30, 32).” Just imagine the scene, Mary doesn’t know this person. She is going up to the temple and suddenly this stranger takes this child and speaks these words, but for Mary, these words would have been comforting and encouraging. These are words that were taken out of the book of Isaiah where the prophet Isaiah (Is 49:6) foretold that there would be someone who would come, a redeemer figure who would be a light to the Gentiles; who would come and bring glory to Israel. Mary, hearing these words, would receive them as a confirmation that this is indeed the great promised child; the child that God foretold.

Simeon goes on to single out Mary and speak to her. He says to her, “Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be contradicted (and you yourself a sword will pierce) so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed (Lk 2:34-35).” He uses an image of the sword, “a sword is going to pierce you also,” or more literally, pierce your soul. Think about what that would mean for Mary, here Mary is receiving what John Paul II called her second annunciation. In the first annunciation (Lk1:26-38), way back in Nazareth she learned that this child of hers was going to be the great Messiah King, but now nine months and forty days later she gets a clearer picture of what she signed up for. She sees more clearly where the road is leading; that her son is going to be hated, opposed, and eventually be killed. That’s what this imagery would point to, “the rise and fall of many in Israel” would describe the great turmoil surrounding Jesus’ public ministry. Many people are going to love him, but there will be many people who will hate him and oppose him and they will be cast down, outside of his kingdom. He will be a sign that is spoken against or contradicted. In Luke’s Gospel, this particular Greek word for spoken against or contradicted is used many times to describe the Jewish leaders plotting against Jesus, plotting to bring him to his death. So, we are already getting a foreshadowing of the violence and the opposition that will be inflicted upon Christ. But, the image of the sword is the most profound image. The image of the sword in the Bible denotes war, blood shed, even death and so Mary is hearing about her son’s future death. Indeed when Jesus dies on the cross, he is going to be pierced by a sword as they take his body down from that cross and Mary is going to suffer profoundly in that as the mother watching her son die on the cross.

Now the spiritual take away point I want to focus on here at the end is this: Mary is being invited to participate in the sword, to participate in the cross; to participate in the suffering of her son. That is what Jesus invites all his disciples to do. He says to them all ‘take up your cross and follow me.’ Most of them won’t do it; at least on Good Friday they won’t. Most of them abandon Jesus on the cross. But Mary was there. She was faithful. She stands as a model for us. Will we follow Jesus just for all of the wonderful things he does for us or will we follow him and be faithful to him even when we experience the cross? Jesus is longing for someone to be with him in the midst of his suffering. Will you be with Mary and take up your cross and follow Jesus?

Introduction of the Homilies on the Eucharistic Prayer – The Eucharistic Prayer is the summit of the whole Mass. In the next six weeks of Ordinary Time, the priest will be offering an in-depth look at the Eucharistic Prayer. The hope is that we can then more fully comprehend what is happening and more fully enter this encounter with the Jesus that Jesus deeply desires for us. There are nine Eucharistic Prayers. Most often we pray I or III at Sunday Masses and occasional IV. Eucharistic Prayer II is prayed at daily mass and sometimes on Sundays. For these homilies we will focus on Eucharistic Prayer III. More information is available at <http://bit.ly/EucharisticPrayer>.

WALKING WITH MOMS IN NEED: A YEAR OF SERVICE

March 25, 2020 is the 25th anniversary of Evangelium Vitae, or The Gospel of Life. In that landmark encyclical, Pope St. John Paul II provides a challenge to us: "With great openness and courage, we need to question how widespread is the culture of life today among individual Christians, families, groups and communities in our Dioceses. With equal clarity and determination we must identify the steps we are called to take in order to serve life in all its truth." – Evangelium Vitae, 95. With this exhortation, we are called to assess our efforts in assisting pregnant moms in need and to improve our responses, where needed, especially at the local level—in short, to truly accompany each pregnant woman in need. Pregnant and parenting moms in need are in our parishes and our neighborhoods. As Pope Francis reminds us, our parishes need to be "islands of mercy in the midst of a sea of indifference." Everyone in the parish community should know where to refer woman in need.

The 25th anniversary year of Evangelium Vitae gives us a wonderful opportunity to assess, expand, and communicate resources to pregnant moms and families in need. We are inviting parishes, through the support of their bishop and pastor, to join a nationwide effort from March 25, 2020 to March 25, 2021 entitled: "Walking with Moms in Need: A Year of Service."

For this Year of Service, the Pro-Life Committee is developing educational, pastoral, and action-oriented resources for parish use, such as: Tools for documenting an inventory of local resources for pregnant mothers in need. Ideas for improving parish responses. Prayers for building a culture of life and a civilization of love. Reflections on the teachings of Evangelium vitae, Evangelii gaudium, and Laudato si'. <http://www.usccb.org/about/pro-life-activities/walking-with-moms-in-need.cfm>
