Our Lady of the Black Hills exists to proclaim the joy of the Gospel to all creation and to transform lives with the Father's mercy.

“Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord.
May it be done to me according to your word.”

(Luke 1:38)

Dear Friends in Christ,

The end of Advent season is here. Only few more days and we will gather again to celebrate the birth of Jesus. In many ways, we will rejoice, though for some it will also be a difficult time. As much as we want to be happy, our hearts will remember many of the events of our life, events that make us happy and sad. Christmas is hinting that the end of another calendar year is right around the corner. We just got older and somehow farther away from the perfect life we planned on living. But all this reminiscing, our nostalgia, and short-lived joy of Christmas is not that bad or that unique. As we read the story of Christ's conception and of his birth, we find that the life of the Emmanuel was not that great either. First, Mary finds herself conversing with an angel, then she needs to tell her beloved that she is with a child. Then Joseph is wrestling with his moral responsibility and the love he has for Mary. In the first months of Mary's pregnancy, they need to travel to a distant country, only to be threatened by the Herod. They had to hide and live in exile. The life of Jesus and of his family was not that easy. But despite all these misfortunes of life, the Messiah still comes to live in our midst. Messiah's arrival is announced by the Angels and witnessed by the shepherds with great joy and amazement.

It is the love God has for us, that allows Jesus, Joseph, and Mary to carry on the mission of salvation. It is their love for God that allows them to look beyond the difficulties of their circumstances, and to rejoice when the angels visit them, when they are cared for by the shepherds and when they are praised by the Maggi. In these last few days of Advent, I encourage you to make room for Jesus in your homes and in your souls. In Jesus, we find the imperfections of the world we live in easier to handle, but we also find the fulfillment of what our souls are longing for, our salvation. Be not afraid to take Jesus into your hearts, and his Holy Family into your homes.

Fr. Andrzej

Do I Have to Attend Mass on Sunday the 26th?

The obligation to attend Mass on Sunday is not lifted. Christmas Mass is the celebration of the birth of our Savior. The obligation to attend Sunday Mass is not met by attending Mass for Christmas on Saturday, December 25. So yes, to meet the obligation of attending Mass on Sunday, you must attend Mass at 8 or 11 AM on Sunday, December 26, to celebrate the Mass of the Feast of the Holy Family.

OLBH Retreat Opportunities Dates TBD

Solo or Couple Retreats at Sioux Spiritual Center

There is an opportunity for members of OLBH to have a weekend retreat in a serene environment to connect with Jesus and our faith. The Sioux Spiritual Center located near Howes SD is a wonderful retreat home, where Carol Brown guides guests in the Ignatian Spiritual exercises. If this interests you, singles, couples, or portion of couples, please contact me, Bob Weaver at 605-389-6934.

Men Needed - Working Retreat – Dates TBD

There are opportunities for two different retreats based on interest. Please let me know if you have any questions regarding either retreat. If this interests you, please contact me, Bob Weaver at 605-389-6934.

A retreat at OLBH would be a Saturday starting with prayer and working our way through different projects that need some elbow grease. At the Sioux Spiritual Center, it could be a Friday/Saturday, or come out Friday evening and work Saturday. Both locations would be looking at finishing with the Divine Mercy Chaplet at 3 PM. If you are concerned whether you can help due to age or ability, your expertise in oversight of different projects is valuable, you may also consider spending time praying for the men working in front of the Blessed Sacrament during the retreat.

Brisket and Loin Pick Up

Folks that ordered briskets and pork loins can pick them up after the 8AM and 11AM masses on Sunday.

Thank you for your donation.

Please prayerfully consider automatic contributions via electronic withdrawal, check service, or at www.olbh.org/donate. Please prayerfully consider including the Western South Dakota Catholic Foundation and Our Lady of the Black Hills in your estate planning.

DEVOTED: A GOING DEEPER RETREAT

Feb 18-20, 2022, | Terra Sancta Retreat Center This GOING DEEPER retreat is offered by the Diocese of Rapid City and geared towards high school youth that desire to grow deeper in faith. This retreat will provide an opportunity for those youth who have encountered Christ and are desiring to deepen their faith and relationship with Him. Through the teachings of Saint Francis De Sales and his book Introduction to the Devout Life the participants will gain a deeper understanding of devotion to Christ, prayer, virtue, and ways of examining their spiritual life and the practice of devotion. The retreat begins Friday at 5pm and ends at 3pm on Sunday. We will be lodging in the monastic wing at Terra Sancta – retreatants will be housed two to a room. The following meals are provided: Friday dinner; Saturday breakfast, lunch, and dinner; Sunday breakfast and lunch. You can learn more about the retreat and register at: www.godeeperretreat.com.

There are many post-abortive women in our churches who live in silent torment. They are slowly self-destructing. They believe that if their friends knew what they had done, they would reject and condemn them. We must reach out in truth, love, and mercy, and bring the good news of Christ's forgiveness and healing to these hurting women.

If you or someone you know has experienced an abortion, we can help.

Plan to attend the next Rachel's Vineyard Retreat™ and experience the healing forgiveness of God. For more information, contact the national office at 877-467-3463 or www.rachelsvineyard.org. GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

“You, Bethlehem-Ephrathah
too small to be among the clans of Judah,
from you shall come forth for me
one who is to be ruler in Israel;”

We do not have to go see the most recent superhero movie or binge-watch a streaming TV series that celebrates the underdog to feel the elation that comes with overcoming evil. We need only to look at our own lives, and God’s plan of salvation for us, to understand what it truly means to be triumphant. From tiny little Bethlehem – a town of no consequence – would arise the Savior of the world. He would be the One who came to do God’s will, and thus consecrated us to God through the offering of his own body as sacrifice, once for all. This is the One Mary carried in her womb and whom Elizabeth’s unborn child – we know to be John the Baptist – recognized. He is the child-most-vulnerable who would become King of the Universe, “stand[ing] firm and shepherd[ing] his flock by the strength of the Lord.” This is the God we serve: the One who became like us so that we may one day be like him. We shall soon celebrate the anniversary of his birth, while also waiting in joyful hope for his coming again. In this time of preparation, then, we pray for the grace to know the Lord more fully and to appreciate with gratitude the Savior he truly is.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

As we prepare to celebrate Christmas, now is the time many of us will begin to gather – as families, friends, and faith communities. What an ideal opportunity to renew our relationships with one another and with Jesus, asking the Holy Spirit to help us recognize the presence of God in our lives and in others. Micah’s prophesy from today’s first reading endures: “His greatness shall reach to the ends of the earth; he shall be peace.” Let’s do our part to share the peace and joy of Christ with those we encounter, witnessing to his saving grace in our lives, and offering others an opportunity to be a part of the greatest story, ever – of God’s saving action.

INVITE/PRAY Invite visiting family members to your parish or faith community for a concert, worship or other Advent activity. If that’s not possible, pray the O Antiphons together at home.
