Our Lady of the Black Hills exists to proclaim the joy of the Gospel to all creation and to transform lives with the Father's mercy.

"Do not be afraid; just have faith."

(Mark 5:36)

Life is a great gift and a mystery. In many ways, it is up to us to find the meaning in our actions and desires. St. John Paul II said many times the words Jesus spoke to the woman, "Do not be afraid." There are enough verses in the Bible which speak of fear, that you can use one a day for a whole year. After the assassination attempt on his life in 1981, Saint JP II, had every right and reason to hide and protect himself, but he did not do it. St. John Paul II knew in his heart that the world needed him and that to follow Christ would require sacrifice and dedication. The words of today's Gospel passage can be directed to every husband and wife who are beginning their life as a family, who are facing the question, "Did I make the right decision?" "Be not afraid" as you are not the only one facing the unknown and its many possibilities. "Have faith" things will work out and that life will present you with not only challenges and mysteries but also with blessings and joy. Faith, hope, trust, and dedication – these thoughts and ideas are present in today's readings and in the story of the healed woman. The miracle of God's Spirit that found a good heart is made known to us. These qualities are also at work in different miracles that take place in the lives of many when they ponder their vocation in life. Some decide to have a family, some decide to join a religious order or enter the seminary, some discover their unique gift of a single life. But there are also some who are willing to go the extra mile and bring God into the lives of many on a very special level.

Is fear than something we should feel guilty about? Our natural response is to avoid what scares us, what is unknown, or what presents a danger. But when I think of fear in the Bible, I see fear more as an opportunity to allow myself to be closer to God, to look for ways I can rely on others. Fear, as a negative idea, is a consequence of sin – of disobedience to God. A righteous fear, or as you may know it from your Confirmation preparation as a "Fear of the Lord – one of the Holy Spirit gifts – is a sign of our respect. After all, if we worry (fear) because we care about our sick relative, or about our task ahead of us, or simply because we just want to be faithful and respectful to God, in those instances, "fear" is a sign of our responsibility. Fear, as a sin, is a fear that leads us away from God. The woman in the Gospel today is very much frightened, and yet she sees in Jesus a source of hope. With great respect and humbleness, she approaches Jesus, and her "fear" is only exaggerated, when Jesus asks "who is it that touched him." But this a good fear, because it has been born out of necessity and has found its culmination in the power of God, in the healing that Jesus offers, in new life that restores our dignity. Fear not, for God is with us. And when in doubt about fear look for things we can be grateful for. Thank God for the moments of hope, for the moments you were encouraged, and the fear will get much easier to face.

In Christ,
Fr. Andrzej

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

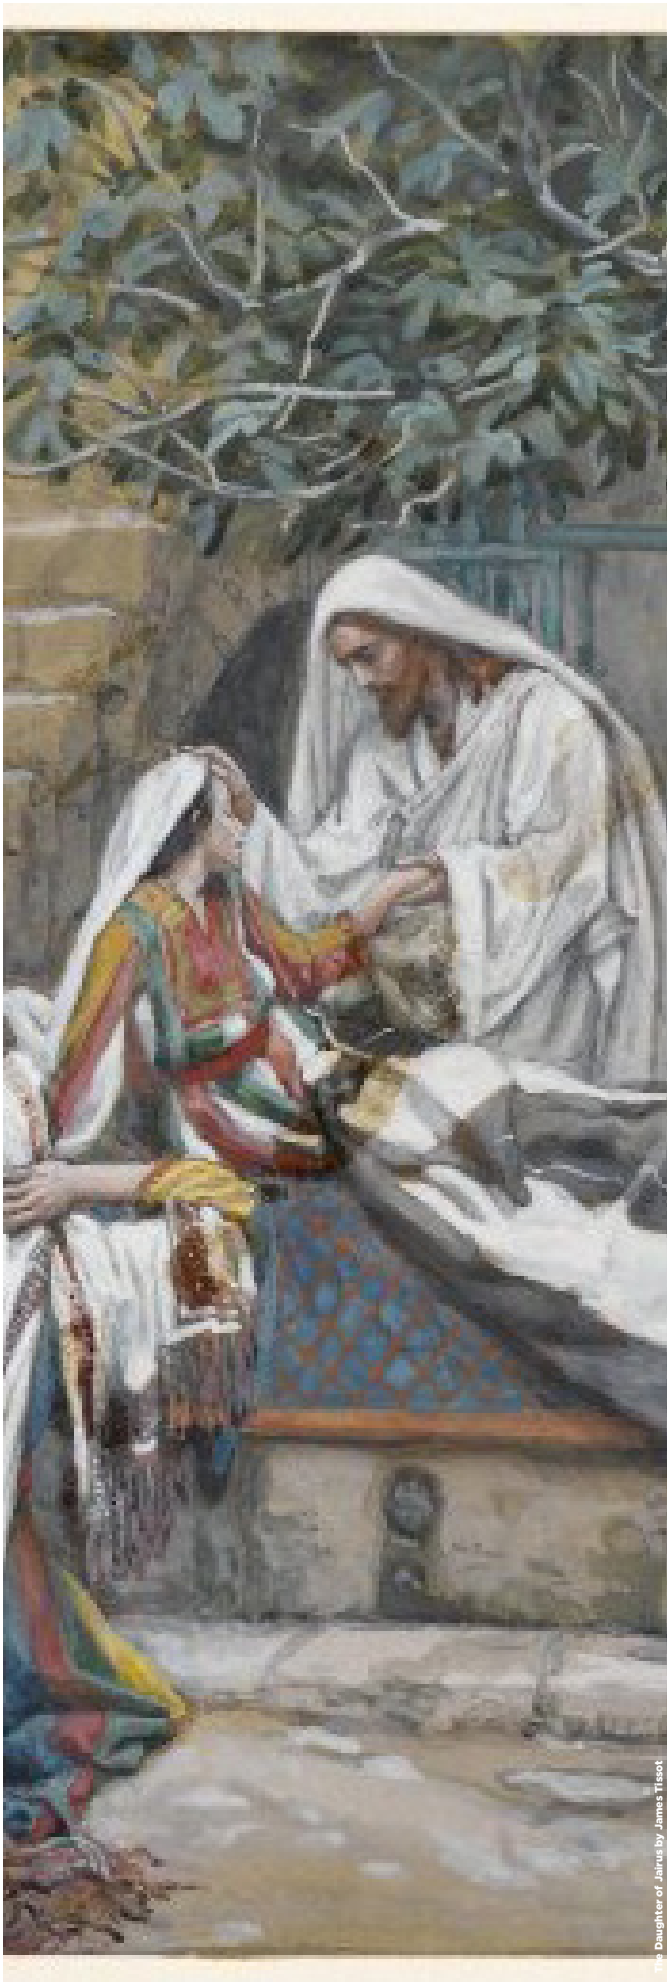

“Do not be afraid; just have faith.” It’s likely we’ve heard and seen Jesus’ reassuring words or even shared them with others. When I read the story of Jairus and his daughter, I thought of a man with whom I spoke recently. As his lungs failed him during a bout with coronavirus, doctors advised him to say good-bye to his wife and daughters before they placed him on a ventilator. “I was expecting to wake up in heaven,” he said, recalling the moment not as one of fear or panic, but of deep peace. In today’s Gospel passage, Jairus had that kind of “fearless faith” as well, placing his daughter’s life wholly in Jesus’ hands even as others in the crowd ridiculed him. When we pray or ask for God’s healing, we can’t know the outcome. But we can pray for the gifts of faith and courage, placing our lives in God’s loving hands.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

When I was a child, my aunt would always encourage us to make the sign of the cross when we passed an ambulance or accident scene. In her concern for the strangers at the side of the road, my aunt was giving us a lesson in compassion, which stands in marked contrast to the crowds who ridiculed Jairus as he desperately sought help for his daughter. The Church has a rich tradition of intercessory prayer, encouraging us to pray for the needs of others. Today’s readings remind me that we can share our faith by praying for others who are sick, dying, grieving, or struggling in some way. Likewise, we can ask others to pray for us, trusting that God will hear our prayers.

PRAY Do you ever offer to pray for someone and then completely forget? Try writing each person’s name on a Post-it and placing it on your bedside table. Other ideas: Pray the Rosary while driving or exercising, devoting a decade to each person; include prayers for others when you say Grace before meals; as soon as you offer to pray for someone, drop everything and do it!
