Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved

Mark 16:16a

Today, we celebrate The Ascension of the Lord. Traditionally, it is celebrated 40 days after Easter. The number forty is symbolic, often representing a period of transition from one state to another. The forty years the Israelites spent in the desert, transitioning from being slaves dependent on the Egyptian masters, to being a free people dependent on God. The forty days Jesus spent being transformed in the desert. The forty days Jesus helps the apostles transition from followers to leaders.

In the Gospel reading from Mark, we hear Jesus telling the disciples before he ascends, to “Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved”. Jesus then goes on to describe what believers are capable of accomplishing. But it really starts with baptism.

As a Deacon, I am blessed with the authority to baptize, especially my grandchildren. Something I was able to do last month when I baptized another grandchild, who was adopted. The day the adoption is finalized is often referred to as their “gotcha day”. Anticipating the arrival of this day, for several months I reflected up on this. The date of our baptism is really our “gotcha day”. It is the date we transition to become an adopted child of God. Do you know, and celebrate, your “gotcha day”? It is an important date and I challenge you to find out the date of your baptism and start celebrating it.

Being baptized is important for our eternal salvation. But it is only part of it. We also need to believe, in order to be saved. And believing means doing what Jesus instructed the disciples, to go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel. For most of us, it is living holy lives, by how we treat our family and neighbors, how we speak, by serving others using the gifts God has given us, by praying daily, and sharing our encounters with Jesus with those we encounter. This really is something each of us can do. You are capable of accomplish much when you believe.

An example in my life was my Dad. No, he was not perfect, but then none of us are. He taught me about generosity when as a young child, I saw him take the last few dollars out of his wallet and put them in the church envelope, telling me when I asked, “what you give to God, God returns many times over”. Dad taught service by how he helped neighbors when they were sick or experienced a death in the family, serving the church as one of the first extraordinary ministers in the parish, or his service in organizations like the Knights of Columbus. He taught about prayer when we would see him and Mom praying the rosary as they knelt by their bed. He continued to proclaim the gospel, as he laid in his bed, dying.

Our baptism and belief in Jesus, demonstrated by the way we live our life, is what each of us are called to do, in hope of making the transition from earthly life to eternal life, with the resurrected and ascended Jesus Christ.

Draw Closer to Jesus and Mary through the Rosary

Dionne Eastmo will be speaking on Wednesday May 19th from 6:30-7:30 pm. The rosary is a fruitful way to meditate on the important moments in the lives of Jesus and Mary, the basic events that established Christianity. Its roots are found deep in the practices of the first Christians and has grown and unfolded as the Church herself has grown. But its purpose and the truths it teaches have always stayed the same. When you pray the rosary well, you learn more about Jesus and His mother, and you hold the Gospel and our beautiful Catholic faith in your hands.

Sacred Relics of the Saints Tour

Treasures of the Church, presented by Fr. Carlos Martins of the Companions of the Cross, is an exposition of relics beginning with a multi-media presentation that is scriptural, catechetical, and devotional. After the presentation, those in attendance will have the opportunity to venerate some 150 relics, including those of St. Maria Goretti, St. Therese of Lisieux, St. Francis of Assisi, St. Thomas Aquinas, and St. Faustina Kowalska. The supreme highlights are one of the largest relics of the True Cross in the world, and a piece of the Veil that is believed to have belonged to Our Lady. The veneration of relics is a communion with the heroes of our Christian faith, asking for their powerful intercession. Many people have reported outstanding blessings and conversions through this ministry, and many have reported healings. Attendees are encouraged to bring their articles of devotion such as rosaries, holy cards, etc, or photos of ill loved ones which may be touched to the reliquaries as a means of intercessory prayer. Please spread the word and do not miss this wonderful opportunity on May 24, at 7 p.m., at St. Francis of Assisi in Sturgis!

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

“Why are you standing there looking at the sky?” the Apostles are asked. Well, hello! The risen Jesus, who had once again walked among the Apostles, “was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight.” Of course the disciples would look up, to gaze once more upon the Son of God whom they loved. Today’s feast reminds us, however, that to look for Jesus is not to stand around looking up, but to engage with others in the world in which he remains present. Even as he sits “at the right hand of God,” Jesus dwells among and within us. For God is not some distant figure, but One who desires to walk alongside us in the person of his Son, Jesus, and give us the gift of the Holy Spirit as our help and advocate. Even in times when we experience doubt, complacency, or simply feel distant from God, Jesus is at our side. Once we open our hearts to his presence, we cannot help but share the Good News of God’s love in our families, workplaces, and everyday encounters with others.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

For anyone wishing to grow in their understanding of what evangelization looks like, today’s readings offer as good a playbook as any. As we celebrate the Ascension, we may be tempted to see it as a kind of “farewell party” for Jesus. But while on the surface, it may appear that Jesus “left” the Apostles, he promises to remain with them through the gift of the Holy Spirit. What does that mean for us? Today’s Gospel sums it up, quoting Jesus’ words immediately before he was taken up to heaven: “Go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel to every creature.” As Catholics and Christians, that’s our bottom line. I read somewhere that “proclaim” goes beyond mere words, and encompasses living out the Gospel by sharing God’s love. Jesus remains at our side, encouraging us to use the gifts God has given us to build up the Church.

PRAY Today’s feast reminds us that we have an advocate in Jesus and the Holy Spirit. As you enter a challenging situation or even just a typical day, remember to ask Jesus to give you a “spirit of wisdom.”
