Our Lady of the Black Hills exists to proclaim the joy of the Gospel to all creation and to transform lives with the Father's mercy.

“Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.” (John 18:37)

It is almost natural and logical to us that we are prone to think and ask questions about the end of time, especially when we read of that in the scripture and hear of that in the daily life. The end of time and the final judgment brings to our attention events that are great yet at the same time scary or incomprehensible to us. Perhaps, it is because we look at it from our own point of view, the human aspect of our existence where everything needs to be put in place and time. If something is not; we tend to find out why or get scared. At the same time in our Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) we read: “Our profession of faith begins with God, for God is the First and the Last, the beginning and the end of everything. The Credo begins with God the Father, for the Father is the first divine person of the Most Holy Trinity; our Creed begins with the creation of heaven and earth, for creation is the beginning and the foundation of all God's works. CCC 198.

God is the beginning and the end, God also created us in His image and likeness, and we know that God is good and merciful. The wisdom of the Church provides some consolation to this question that is: “The Last Judgment will come when Christ returns in glory. Only the Father knows the day and the hour; only he determines the moment of its coming. Then through his Son Jesus Christ he will pronounce the final word on all history. We shall know the ultimate meaning of the whole work of creation and of the entire economy of salvation and understand the marvelous ways by which his Providence led everything towards its end. The Last Judgment will reveal that God's justice triumphs over all the injustices committed by his creatures and that God's love is stronger than death. CCC 1040

The end of time will come, but that is not what should be our concern. We need not to worry when it will happen or how is it going to look like. In the Catechism of the Catholic Church, we find that “The message of the Last Judgment calls men to conversion while God is still giving them “the acceptable time, . . . the day of salvation.” It inspires a holy fear of God and commits them to the justice of the Kingdom of God. It proclaims the “blessed hope” of the Lord's return, when he will come “to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at in all who have believed. CCC 1041 And also “For man, this consummation will be the final realization of the unity of the human race, which God willed from creation and of which the pilgrim Church has been “in the nature of sacrament.” Those who are united with Christ will form the community of the redeemed, “the holy city” of God, “the Bride, the wife of the Lamb.” She will not be wounded any longer by sin, stains, self-love, that destroy or wound the earthly community. The beatific vision, in which God opens himself in an inexhaustible way to the elect, will be the ever-flowing well-spring of happiness, peace, and mutual communion. CCC 1045. God provides us with many opportunities to be prepared for the final days of our existence, He gives us encouragement. Let us freely respond to this great call, using our free will joyfully awaiting the fulfillment of time, being not scared of the things that are to happen but to rejoice that we will be able to meet with our heavenly Father, who is Love itself.

Fr. Andrzej

There are many post-abortive women in our churches who live in silent torment. They are slowly self-destructing. They believe that if their friends knew what they had done, they would reject and condemn them. We must reach out in truth, love, and mercy, and bring the good news of Christ's forgiveness and healing to these hurting women.

If you or someone you know has experienced an abortion, we can help.
