Our Lady of the Black Hills exists to proclaim the joy of the Gospel to all creation and to transform lives with the Father's mercy.

“One of the scribes came to Jesus and asked him,
“Which is the first of all the commandments?” Jesus replied,
“The first is this: *Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone!
You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.* The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these.”” (Mark 12:28-31)

St. John Vianney, a patron saint of priests said once “The Saints did not begin well, but they all ended well.” For various reasons at first, he was not seen as a worthy candidate for priesthood. He did not have much to offer, the family was not well off, and his wisdom and health did not promise much. More out of mercy than some gave him any chance. What St. John Vianney had was the faith that was handed down to him by his parents, and more than that, he also had a great love and respect for God. Once he discovered his vocation, he begun following it with passion. Once he encountered the challenges he offered himself even more to God. His persistence paid off, as he was finally received into the ranks of holy orders. France, his home country was getting more laicized, more secular, and out of touch with its Christian roots. Soon after the ordination, St. John was assigned to a small-town parish, with experience yet to be gained. People were not taking him seriously, almost making a mockery of him. But the young priest would have none of it, he was not going to fight with same weapons as he was being attacked. Entrusting his life and ministry, he lifted the people of the town in prayer, faithfulness and love up to God. He went about the work as a priest and as a shepherd. As people begun to see his resilience and dedication to God and to them, they became curious about the reason of his dedication. They were never the same again.

This week, the Church celebrates the Feast of All Saints (November 01), followed by the Feast of All Souls. These two feasts help us to remember the saints from the past, our loved ones and friends we have known in our lifetime. From the saints we learn how to live up to standards put forth by God and which are presented to us in the Sermon on the Mount – the Beatitudes. From their lives we learn of their struggles and sacrifices. Through their example we find joy in our lives and in our faith. It is the saints who help us understand today who we are as Catholics and Children of God. The lives of the saints and of our dearly beloved who have passed away help us also to look at the reasons why they were so faithful to God. It is the hope and love that they kept in their hearts, which they wished to share with us, to make our lives better and holier. We remember them, and we are called to express our identity as children of God in our own word and deed, as we are the “saints in making.” I encourage you to come and pray with the community at Mass on November 01, and November 02. I also encourage you all to make a time and visit a local cemetery, to pray for the faithful departed.

All holy men and women pray for us as we proclaim the Gospel with the Mercy of the Father.

In Christ, Fr. Andrzej

We Stand before You, Holy Spirit Prayer

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;
Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.
Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity
so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

THE FAITHFUL DISCIPLE

Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dt 6:2-6 | Heb 7:23-28 | Mk 12:28b-34

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

“Oh no,” was my first thought when I began reading today’s Gospel – “another scribe trying to trick Jesus.” But this scribe agrees with Jesus: Loving God and loving your neighbor as yourself are the greatest commandments. When the scribe explains that loving God and your neighbor are worth more than all offerings or sacrifices, Jesus recognizes that the scribe took these commandments “to heart,” as Moses had taught. He doesn’t just know the law, he understands it. Because he understands it, Jesus assures him that he is not far from the kingdom of God. So, how can we grow in our understanding of what it means to love God and love our neighbor? We do this by spending time with Scripture and “taking to heart” his words; by prayerfully reflecting on Jesus’ life and giving thanks for his sacrifice for us; by drawing closer to him through the sacraments; and by asking him to help us grow in our love for God, and for one another. An authentic love for God will show itself in love of neighbor, and the more we truly love one another, the greater our love for God will grow.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Loving our neighbors is essential if we seek to draw them to God’s love. For many of us, that’s much easier said than done. It’s not easy to love someone with whom we disagree or are in competition with. And these days, with so much division in society, it is all too simple to assume the worst rather than the best about others with whom we interact, or see on television. Can we commit to truly seeing others as God sees them – his beloved children, made in his own image? After all, it is through Jesus and in keeping his word that we become more like him, in thought and deed: “Whoever loves me will keep my word ... and my father will love him and we will come to him.” Let us pray to see our neighbors as the Lord does; and pray that we ourselves might be the kind of neighbor in whom others may see God’s image! We have the opportunity to be an example of, and a witness to, a love that forgives and is not overcome by fear or division.

PRAY As we prepare for the feast of All Souls, make an effort to see others as God sees them by reflecting on the lives of those who have loved you and what their lives have taught you about God’s love. Attend Mass and give thanks for those you hold in your heart. Then pray honestly and sincerely for those with whom you know you have a difference of conviction or opinion, asking God to graciously answer all their needs and to care for them as you yourself would like to be cared for.

YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR
as yourself.”
