Our Lady of the Black Hills exists to proclaim the joy of the Gospel to all creation and to transform lives with the Father's mercy.

“We will know Him and each other in the breaking of the bread.”

(Luke 24:30-31)

Discover Christ at Our Lady of the Black Hills

I have always loved the story of the loaves and fishes. Despite the doubts of the apostles, they put their trust in Jesus and find that not only is there enough food to satisfy all those present, but there is an abundance left over. There is no grumbling about the quality and quantity of the food, only peace. I have been blessed in my life to have witnessed this peace and contentment after many holiday celebrations, many of which concluded with a meal.

All those present at the multiplication of the loaves and fishes are gathered and are nourished together, and all share an experience of communion with Jesus. I am excited to tell you about an opportunity to come together with others seeking a deeper relationship with Christ, and to experience a deeper love for those around us. It begins with a meal.

Discovering Christ is the first course in the ChristLife series. We will all break bread together and get to know one another in a relaxed atmosphere. After being welcomed, we will pray, watch a video teaching, and have a small group discussion. Each week, we will have the opportunity to deepen our love for God and feel His love in return. We will also learn skills to help us accompany others who are seeking Jesus in their lives.

The Discovering Christ course will run on 7 consecutive Thursday evenings from September 30th – November 11th from 6-8:30pm, with a day retreat at Terra Sancta on October 30th. This is a wonderful way for you to participate in our parish, to build community, to evangelize, and live out our parish mission statement: Our Lady of the Black Hills exists to proclaim the joy of the Gospel to all creation and to transform lives with the mercy of the Father.

Discovering Christ is open to anyone of any denomination, baptized or unbaptized, regular Church attendees or those still waiting to belong. There are cards available for you to use to invite your friends, neighbors, co-workers, and anyone else you may bump into, in the office or on the faith formation table in the Narthex.

“Finding the Catholic Church and participating in ChristLife has given me a new, deeper love for our Lord. It has helped me to walk with Christ daily and to make Christ my number one priority. ChristLife has given me the tools needed to have a closer relationship with Christ more than ever before.” – Cathy Long.

Please pray and discern how you can respond to this invitation. You can register online at <http://www.olbh.org/christlife> or by filling out a form in the narthex of the church. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at amy.haakenson@olbh.org or by calling the office at 787-5168.

With Love,

Amy Haakenson

Our year together includes great books, spiritual classics (during Advent and Lent), worthy reads, poetry, and selected essays from the Catholic and Western traditions. This year we are excited to dive into the theme of "the family" with the help of some excellent authors such as Lucy Maud Montgomery, and Mother Veronica Namoyo Le Goulard, among others. To register today, view this year's booklist, and find out more, visit wellreadmom.com. There is an informational meeting at Maggie Whiteside's home on Tuesday September 7th at 7:30pm.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I think it can be easy to romanticize faith: the post-retreat high, the inspirational homily, even the motivational wall art that pops up on Pinterest. But keeping the faith can be hard sometimes. And living it out? Even harder. Today's readings both challenge and encourage us, as they so often do. The Letter of James pulls no punches: Faith without works is "dead." And in today's Gospel, right after Peter says, "You are the Christ," Jesus tempers that Good News, telling him that even the Son of Man must suffer greatly. We who follow Jesus must also be willing to take up our cross. This is a daily challenge to choose life over death; to choose the transformative power of Jesus over sin that creeps into our lives; to make the choice to put others' needs before our own. None of this is easy. But as the prophet Isaiah reminds us, we don't have to do it alone; indeed, the Lord God is our help. We can choose well.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

I'm inspired when the young people in our parish assist with the Sunday liturgy and do service projects in the community. As a working parent (and back when I was a "stay-at-home" mom), I tell myself, maybe someday when things slow down, I'll do more. But honestly, I think the teens in the youth group – between work, school, and sports – are busier than I am. As we listen to today's readings, wherever we may be in life and faith, what stands out? Is it James' entreaty to pair faith with works? Or Jesus' words that "whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it"? Or the prophet Isaiah's rock-solid faith? Today's readings give us many ways to witness to our faith in Jesus – through prayer, service, generosity, perseverance, works, and words. We can ask the Holy Spirit to show us which of these gifts we can share with others this week.

ACTIONS Brainstorm new ways to witness to your faith. It could be as simple as picking up extra food for the pantry in the back of church or changing up "Grace" at dinner to add prayers for others.
