Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Feast of Corpus Christi

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, also known as the Feast of Corpus Christi. A solemnity is simply a feast day within the Church considered to be of highest importance, such as Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. Feasts are celebrations within the Church focused on holy people, such as Jesus or Saints, or commemorate events, such as Christmas Day, the birth of Jesus.

Corpus Christi is Latin which translates to “Body of Christ”. This feast originated in France in the mid-thirteenth century and was extended to the whole Church by Pope Urban IV in 1264. In the United States, this feast is celebrated on the Sunday following the Trinity Sunday.

This Solemnity commemorates the institution of the Sacrament of Holy Communion. It is the Church's official act of homage and gratitude to Christ, who by instituting the Holy Eucharist gave to the Church her greatest treasure.

The primary purpose of this feast is to focus our attention on the Eucharist, the Body and Blood of Christ. In the opening prayer at Mass, it calls our attention to Jesus' suffering and death, and to our worship of Him, in the Eucharist. And it asks God “that we may always experience in ourselves, the fruits of your redemption.”

While at every Mass, our attention is called to the Eucharist and the Real Presence of Christ, in it, this feast day has an additional focus. It also calls us to recognize the Body of Christ as present in the Church. As members of the Church, we are also, the Body of Christ, with Jesus Christ as the head. We are also to focus on the unity and the diversity of the Church.

The Feast of Corpus Christi is commonly used as an opportunity for public Eucharistic processions, which serves as a sign of common faith and adoration. Our worship of Jesus in His Body and Blood calls us to offer to God our Father a pledge of undivided love and an offering of ourselves to the service of others.

This year, this Feast is the kickoff of the National Eucharistic Revival. In the Diocese of Rapid City, all are invited to join Bishop Peter Muhich at Mass followed by a diocesan Eucharistic Procession. Visit <https://www.rapidcitydiocese.org/revival/> for more information.

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Gn 14:18-20 | 1 Cor 11:23-26 | Lk 9:11b-17

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Today begins the National Eucharistic Revival, a grassroots effort launched by the U.S. bishops to reignite “devotion and belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.” What better day to begin than on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, when we as Catholics reflect on the source and summit of our faith. “For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself ...” (catechism, 1324) Our readings today remind us that the Eucharist is more than a powerful symbol; as Catholics, we believe we receive Christ himself – body, blood, soul, and divinity – in the form of the consecrated bread and wine. As Pope Francis said in a homily on this solemnity in 2019: “If we receive it into our hearts, this bread will release in us the power of love. We will feel blessed and loved, and we will want to bless and love in turn.” That is what the early disciples did, whether feeding the 5,000 or nurturing the early Church. The Eucharistic Revival gives each of us an opportunity to give thanks for the gift of the Eucharist and share it with others.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

On today’s solemnity, also known as the feast of Corpus Christi, some parishes have a eucharistic procession. This is when a consecrated host – that is, the real and substantial presence of Jesus Christ, body, blood, soul and divinity – is placed within a monstrance, which is then lifted and carried by a priest who leads the faithful in procession beginning at one holy place and ending at another. Some parishes or religious communities may extend hours for eucharistic adoration. Both of these are excellent opportunities to spend time with Jesus and reflect on Christ’s gift of himself in the Eucharist. What should be our response to this gift? As Pope Francis has said, it is a call “to go out and bring Jesus to others.” Just as Jesus challenged the disciples when they didn’t think they had enough bread and fish to serve the 5,000, we may feel we “don’t have enough” to give. Nourished by the Eucharist, however, and by our devotion to the real presence of God in that Eucharist, we have all we need to go out and witness to the love of Jesus. Go forth and announce the Gospel of the Lord.

ACTION Spend time in eucharistic adoration this week, even for a few minutes. Share what the experience was like with others or invite a friend to join you.
