“Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home. For it is through the Holy Spirit that this child has been conceived in her. She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins.”

(Matthew 1:20-21)

Dear Friends in Christ,

The end of Advent is here. Only few more days and we will gather together again to celebrate the birth of Jesus. In many ways, we will rejoice, though for many it will also be a difficult time. As much as we want to be happy, our hearts will also remember many of the events of our life, that make us sad. Christmas is hinting that the end of another year is right around the corner. We just got older and somehow farther away from the perfect life we planned on living. But perhaps, all this reminiscing, our nostalgia, and short lived joy of Christmas is not that bad or that unique. As we read the story of Christ's conception and of his birth, we find that the life of the Emmanuel was not that great either. First, Mary finds herself conversing with an angel, then she needs to tell her beloved that she is with a child. Then Joseph is wrestling with his moral responsibility and the love he has for Mary. In the first months of Mary's pregnancy, they need to travel to a distant country, only to be threatened by the Herod. They had to hide and live in exile. The life of Jesus and of his family was not that easy. But despite all these misfortunes of life, the Messiah still comes to live in our midst.

It is the love God has for us, that allows Jesus, Joseph and Mary to carry on the mission of salvation. It is their love for God that allows them to look beyond the difficulties of their circumstances, and to rejoice when they are visited by the angels, when they are cared for by the shepherds and when they are praised by the Maggi. In these last few days of Advent, I encourage you to make room for Jesus in your homes and in your souls. In this Jesus, we find the imperfections of the world we live in, but we also find the fulfillment of what our souls are longing for. Be not afraid to take Jesus, and his Holy Family into your homes.

Fr. Andrzej

Fourth Sunday of Advent

Is 7:10-14 | Rom 1:1-7 | Mt 1:18-24

Written by
THE FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

In our family's department-store Nativity set, Joseph blends into the background: Mary and the infant Jesus steal the scene, she in her blue robes and looking over the sweet, tiny and vulnerable Son of God. Even the Magi stand out more than humble Joseph. Yet today's Gospel focuses on Jesus' earthly father, whom many of us Catholics grew to know a little better during the Year of St. Joseph in 2021. Imagine Joseph's shock at learning Mary was pregnant! Rather than quietly divorcing her, he accepts the angel's words at face value: "For it is through the Holy Spirit that this child has been conceived in her. She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins." Joseph takes Mary into his home and embraces her and the child Jesus she bears. As we celebrate this fourth Sunday of Advent, we can all do well to follow Joseph and Mary's example by saying "yes" to God, even though it may turn our lives upside down. We can dust off our Nativity scenes and ask the Lord to help us prepare our hearts and homes for Jesus.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

I remember our first trip to the pediatrician with our newborn. Our job as parents, he said in so many words, was to raise him so that he'd be ready to leave us at 18. As our youngest approaches that milestone, I'm having a hard time letting go. In his apostolic letter Patris Corde, Pope Francis holds up St. Joseph as an example of what it means to be a father (and I think this applies to mothers, too): "Every child is the bearer of a unique mystery that can only be brought to light with the help of a father who respects that child's freedom. A father who realizes that he is most a father and educator at the point when he becomes 'useless,' when he sees that his child has become independent and can walk the paths of life unaccompanied. When he becomes like Joseph, who always knew that his child was not his own but had merely been entrusted to his care." Joseph and Mary loved Jesus in this way, accepting that Jesus did not "belong" to them but to all of us. Whether or not we are parents, we can learn from their example, entrusting our lives and those of our loved ones to God. As St. Paul reminds us, we "belong to Jesus Christ."

ACTION "Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel, which means 'God is with us.'" As you light the Advent candles or say evening prayers this week, reflect on the ways Jesus has made his presence known to you today and give thanks.
