The Saturday Vigil Mass at 5 PM is livestreamed on the Our Lady of the Black Hills Facebook page and then posted on olbh.org.

"Bless the LORD, O my soul;
And all my being, bless his holy name.

Bless the LORD, O my soul,
And forget not all his benefits.

R. The Lord is kind and merciful."

Psalm 103

Dear Friends in Christ,

Reflecting on the Psalm 103, one cannot help but to be grateful and rejoice in the many ways the Lord has been present to us. This coming Friday (February 25), we will be celebrating a Healing Liturgy at our parish. As a priest I have many opportunities to visit with the people who are afflicted with various infirmities and who experience both challenge and the grace of God. As Deacon John said last week, some of those infirmities are physical, some are emotional and some are spiritual – after all, many of us live by the moment. As a priest, I cannot rely on the medical advances, possible prescriptions of the medicine or the knowledge of the medical world only. Besides all the advancements of the world, I also have at my disposal the teaching of Christ, the prayers of the saints and my faith. But that is not all, as I also have the grace and the presence of God, who is close to all who suffer. And as Deacon John helped us to see last weekend, many of us suffer in variety of ways and many of us can experience the love of God who calls us to new life.

What is a Mercy Night? It is a time of prayer and reflection. During the evening, we will have the Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. In a world where we are so busy, Jesus calls us to slow down and to contemplate for a moment. Silence is a quite a challenge these days. We will also have an opportunity for confessions. We are only a short time away from the Lent, so preparing our hearts might be a good way of entering into the spirit of lent. We will also have prayer teams. God is a community of love, and we can share in that community as well as to share the experience with others, especially as we pray with and for each other. Prayer teams will be available so we can pray for your needs, for the grace of God and in thanksgiving.

God is present to us. He wants to be present to us and He wants us to be present to Him. And as we reflect on our journey with God, let us rejoice and be glad, as we bless the Lord.

In Jesus Christ, Fr. Andrzej

Note: please, remember to sign up for the small groups that will meet during the Lent. For more info, contact Amy Haakenson.

'The role of man in restoring a Catholic culture in his home, parish and in the world.'

Saturday, March 26, 2022 | Terra Sancta Retreat Center

Cost $40 includes conference, breakfast and lunch.

The Alcuin Institute for Catholic Culture seeks to cultivate in the Diocese of Tulsa & Eastern Oklahoma forgotten, and often forbidden realities – such as virtue, chivalry, valor, self-denial, a fondness for things of the past, and the mirth found in friendship in order that truth, goodness, and beauty may prevail. In doing so we hope to become a bastion for authentic Catholic culture.

Catholic Social Services has offered free services to those facing crisis pregnancy throughout our Diocese. Our professional staff provides them with compassionate support and information regardless of whether they choose to parent or place their child in a loving adoptive home. The annual collection taken on Ash Wednesday allows us to continue these valuable services to people of all faiths in Western South Dakota. Please prayerfully consider your gift that helps so many.

Diocesan Live Streamed Masses

The Diocese will livestream the following Masses from the Cathedral of Our Lady of Perpetual Help: March 2, 5:30 pm – Ash Wednesday and March 6, 2 p.m. – Rite of Election. Visit our Facebook page www.facebook.com/DiocesefofRapidCity to watch!

Job Openings at OLPH Cathedral

Cathedral is looking to hire a Communications Coordinator/Administrative Secretary, A Liturgy Director/RCIA Coordinator, and a Food Services Coordinator. Contact Beth at 605-342-0507 or beth@cathedralolph.org for an application and job description.

Surviving Divorce—Helping You Find Peace, Power, and Passion After Your Divorce

Separated or Divorced? Surviving Divorce covers topics including shock and grief, anger and forgiveness, money issues, dealing with children and a former spouse, and annulment and remarriage. This program is for the newly separated and divorced and those still struggling with issues years later. It will help find answers to questions, restore hope, and begin authentic healing. Rooted in Catholic teaching, Surviving Divorce is open to Christian men and women of all denominations. Please share this opportunity with a friend in need. Spring Session begins Monday, March 7, 6:00-8:00 PM, and continues for twelve weeks at Blessed Sacrament Church, Rapid City. A $30 registration fee covers all materials. Scholarship help is available for those in financial need. Participants can register online at www.rapidcitydiocese.org/FLM. For more information, contact Amy Julian at FamilyLife@diorc.org.

Adoration

Worship the present Lord who is present in body, blood, soul, and divinity. Let him fill your heart. Enter silence and listen for His voice.

Confession

Multiple priests are available for the sacrament of reconciliation. Come, and meet Jesus who forgives you.

Intercessory Prayer Teams

There are teams of Intercessors praying on your behalf. They will bring your prayers to the Lord. You can ask the teams to pray over you for a specific intention.

Praise and Worship

The music ministers lead us in praise and worship. Join in singing and let the song be your prayer or simply rest in beauty of the music. May the music fill your heart with love for Jesus.

Act of Contrition

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In His name, my God have mercy. Amen.

Divine Mercy Prayer

You expired, Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls and the ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world. O Fountain of Life, unfathomable Divine Mercy, cover the whole world and empty yourself out upon us. O Blood and Water which gushed forth from the heart of Jesus as a Fountain of Mercy for us, I trust in You! Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal one, have mercy on us and the whole world [3 times] Jesus, King of Mercy, we trust in You!

Mercy Night

Friday, February 25th

6-7:30 PM

Our Lady of the Black Hills
Piedmont

Come and spend time with Jesus and receive His mercy.

Come for any amount of time
you are able.

Allow God to fill your hearts with the peace and calm of the Holy Spirit.

Come and rest in the Lord.

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Sm 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23 | 1 Cor 15:45-49 | Lk 6:27-38

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Have you heard about the Civilize It! initiative? The U.S. bishops launched a campaign to encourage civil dialogue during the contentious 2020 election. Unfortunately, the divisiveness in our nation, and even within the Church, has shown no signs of subsiding, leading the bishops to reboot the campaign last fall. The bishops encourage every Catholic to pledge to be a force for charity, clarity, and creativity in our divided world. Today's Gospel shows us how to do that, starting with the Golden Rule. What strikes me – and challenges me – are the specific examples that remain relevant 2,000 years later: Love your enemies and do good for them; stop judging; stop condemning; give. Building on last Sunday's account of the beatitudes, Luke provides us a prescription for how to live a moral and happy life, one that reflects those who "bear the image of the heavenly one."

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

I am thankful to have people in my life who bring out the best in others, and certainly bring out the best in me. I would guess we can each point to others who have guided and encouraged us: A teacher, a dear friend, a favorite aunt, a neighbor or coach. Today's readings encourage us to be that person for others, even when it's hard. Nobody said being a witness to Christ would be a cake walk! Fortunately, we can turn to prayer and the Scriptures for encouragement. For me, it may begin with small steps, such as listening to those with whom I disagree, not getting drawn into social media debates, and being more generous with my time. As we reflect on today's readings, perhaps we can each choose one change we would like to make or challenge we want to accept as we move into the week and ask God to help us put it into practice.

ACT Praise God each day this coming week. And then challenge yourself to offer a compliment to one person every day as well. Praising God and others puts us in right relationship with God and with our brothers and sisters.
