Our Lady of the Black Hills exists to proclaim the joy of the Gospel to all creation and to transform lives with the Father's mercy.

“Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.”

Luke 4:21

I have been blessed to be a grandparent for over four years now. My wife and I have had multiple opportunities to babysit or simply spend time with grandkids. We regularly have video calls with our kids, but it is mostly with the camera focused on the grandkids. It often amazes me how much energy the grandkids have, how joyful they “usually” are, and how much they use their imaginations.

For many, myself included, the older we get, the less energy we tend to have. We too often become less joyful and a bit more “grumpy”. And we tend to use our imaginations less and less, instead filling our minds with watching TV, scrolling through social media, or otherwise keeping it busy. How would it affect you if instead, you spent a bit more time using your imagination? Would it possibly give you a bit more energy? Would it make you a bit more joyful?

One way to use our imagination, a gift God has given us, is to use it in our prayer. Today's gospel reading is a perfect scripture to do just that.

Imagine you found your customary “spot” in the synagogue, and you are silently praying or are quietly visiting with those around you. Who is all there? What are you discussing? Suddenly, a hush comes over the crowd as Jesus enters. What does he look like? Who is with him? Is his mother Mary there? Does he look joyful or tired?

Imagine yourself or someone else handing Jesus the scroll from the prophet Isaiah? As Jesus is opening the scroll, what sounds are you hearing? What does the scroll look like? Then, Jesus begins to read.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.

What does Jesus' voice sound like? Are you able to clearly hear him or are you so far away you strain a bit to hear his words? Where are you looking at as Jesus reads from the scroll? What thoughts are going through your mind? What feelings are you experiencing?

As quickly as Jesus' reading starts, it is over. Jesus declares, “Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.” What thoughts are crossing your mind? Are you puzzled? Are you in awe? Are you wondering what Jesus means by his statement? What feelings are you experiencing?

When we pray with scripture, using our imaginations, it gives God another way for Him to communicate with us. It transports us back to that moment in time. It allows God to reveal things to us, such as how Jesus looks and sounds. God can reveal his feelings, his emotions, his desires for us, through our imaginations. Using our imaginations can help us stay focused on the prayer instead of being distracted by things of this world.

If you struggle using your imagination, keep trying. The more we use our imagination in prayer, the easier it will become. And you just might end having more energy and become even more joyful.

OFFICE OF BISHOP

January 2022

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Many of us thought the pandemic would be old news by now. Yet in 2022 it continues to shape the way we communicate, evangelize and give. The Diocese of Rapid City is diligently working to provide services on a reduced budget. Funding and new formats challenge the West River Catholic staff to find new ways to keep the good news going.

While printed and mailed newspapers are only prepared six times per year, the staff has tried to keep information flowing in church bulletins, e-News on the Diocese of Rapid City website, on Facebook and Instagram. Also, they have worked on podcasts and Mass broadcasts.

Since 1973, the diocese has sent the West River Catholic has been sent to every registered household in the diocese and we will continue to do so. However, to assist with production costs, each year a voluntary subscription drive is held. The suggested donation is $27, but every gift is welcome.

If you wish to mail a donation, an envelope is included in the January 2021 print edition of the West River Catholic for your convenience. New this year, the newspaper and the inserted envelopes feature a QR code for easy access. If you wish to make your donation online, please use the QR code or visit www.rapidcitydiocese.org/wrc and click on MAKE A GIFT in the upper right corner.

Please join me in supporting this valuable line of communication so we can stay in touch.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Rev. Peter M. Muhich
Bishop of Rapid City

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Neh 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10 | 1 Cor 12:12-30 or 1 Cor 12:12-14, 27 | Lk 1:1-4; 4:14-21

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Do you ever find yourself feeling like you are at the cusp of something remarkable? Like you are witnessing an incredible, historic, athletic, or aeronautical feat? I wonder if that's what it was like for the followers of Jesus when he began his public ministry: "News of him spread throughout the whole region. He taught in their synagogues and was praised by all." In today's Gospel, Jesus reads the words of the prophet Isaiah that are effectively a "job description" of his mission: glad tidings to the poor, liberty of captives, sight to the blind, freedom for the oppressed. What Isaiah prophesied, Jesus claims to fulfill. He thus inaugurates his public ministry with a claim that is straightforward, bold, true, and of great consequence. Today, by virtue of our baptism, we are part of the body of Christ and share in that mission. Whatever our backgrounds, abilities, or talents, we each have something to contribute to building up one another and the Church. And with the help of the Holy Spirit, we, too, can be bold in our own proclamation of Jesus Christ as Lord.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

We've heard the phrase "Don't sell yourself short." Social media aside, many of us tend to focus on our shortcomings: We may wish we could run faster, be better at our jobs, have a cleaner home, in general, "get it together!" Truth is, we're all works in progress. That's what I love about Paul's Letter to the Corinthians. He reminds us that each one of us – whatever our strengths or weaknesses – is part of the body of Christ. God loves us with our imperfections, not in spite of them. As such, each of us has indispensable value and much to contribute to the mission of the Church. As we move into the week ahead, today's readings invite us to place ourselves at the service of the Church and one another. Beyond that, we can invite others to join us by recognizing that God values the talents – and foibles – that each of us brings to his service.

PRAY Yesterday on the liturgical calendar was the Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children. As members of the body of Christ, let us join our voices with the universal Church and pray a Pro-Life Rosary each night this week. The USCCB Prayers and Devotions page is a good resource.
