“This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

(John 13:35)

As we are approaching the end of another busy school year, many of us will try to recognize or be recognized by others for the sacrifice while volunteering. People volunteer for many reasons, but the most common one is the good of others. This good of others is also at the heart of our Christian faith, faith that has its beginning in the gift of God's sacrifice for us – God's Love for His people. Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI describes it very well in his Encyclical Letter “Deus Caritas Est.” We read in it that “God has made himself visible: in Jesus we are able to see the Father (cf. Jn 14:9). Indeed, God is visible in several ways.

In the love-story recounted by the Bible, he comes towards us, he seeks to win our hearts, all the way to the Last Supper, to the piercing of his heart on the Cross, to his appearances after the Resurrection and to the great deeds by which, through the activity of the Apostles, he guided the nascent Church along its path. Nor has the Lord been absent from subsequent Church history: he encounters us ever anew, in the people who reflect his presence, in his word, in the sacraments, and especially in the Eucharist. In the Church's Liturgy, in her prayer, in the living community of believers, we experience the love of God, we perceive his presence, and we thus learn to recognize that presence in our daily lives. He has loved us first and he continues to do so; we too, then, can respond with love. God does not demand of us a feeling, which we ourselves are incapable of producing. He loves us, he makes us see and experience his love, and since he has “loved us first,” love can also blossom as a response within us.” (Deus Caritas Est # 17)

Reading “Deus Caritas Est” one can learn even more. So often we use the word “love” where many of us have lost its meaning. We use the word “love” to describe our feeling for one another (love between husband and wife) but at the same time we use it to describe our approach to the material things (I love this car; I love your haircut) as well as to describe some temporary state of our life (I love to take a nap). Maybe that is why it is difficult to grasp the full meaning of Christian love when we talk about the meaning of “love” in context of sacrifice, a sacrifice that has its beginning in God.

The Christian meaning of love is more than a word; it is a lifestyle that recognizes its value in the context of God's grace and sacrifice. Therefore, it is not us who are in charge, but it is us who are invited to free response to God's example of service and sacrifice for others. “This proper way of serving others also leads to humility. The one who serves does not consider himself superior to the one served; however miserable his situation now may be. Christ took the lowest place in the world—the Cross—and by this radical humility he redeemed us and constantly comes to our aid. Those who are able to help others will realize that in doing so they themselves receive help; being able to help others is no merit or achievement of their own. This duty is a grace. The more we do for others, the more we understand and can appropriate the words of Christ: “We are useless servants” (Lk 17:10). We recognize that we are not acting on the basis of any superiority or greater personal efficiency, but because the Lord has graciously enabled us to do so. There are times when the burden of need and our own limitations might tempt us to become discouraged. But precisely then we are helped by the knowledge that, in the end, we are only instruments in the Lord's hands.” (Deus Caritas Est #35)

To all volunteers, who sacrifice in any way for the good of others, I say Thank You. May God who gave you the ability to volunteer and the grace to carry it through our cooperation, may you always be in His loving Heart. Fr. Andrzej

Encounter the Holy Spirit at Pennington County Jail

Meet the group of local Catholics who share the good news of Jesus with incarcerated men and women. We are Hope for New Life (HFNL), a jail ministry that started sixteen years ago. It is hard to say who receives the most benefit—the inmates or us. The Holy Spirit is alive and very present during these visits to the jail! A blessed opportunity has opened recently with the chance to expand and reach even more people. All we need is volunteers who want to follow Jesus' example of loving others and meeting them where they're at. An upcoming training session will be held in June or July. Are you curious to learn more? Perhaps hearing a call from Jesus to help? Please HFNL member from our parish to ask questions. Contact Brad Blauvelt at 605-390-0683.
