To better understand what we hear in the first reading from Malachi, we need some context. The people are complaining it is useless to serve God (Malachi 3:14-15). It seems to them, even though the arrogant and the evildoers insult and test God, they continue to enjoy the promised blessings of success and prosperity. To them it appears unfair and asks, "What do we gain by keeping the Lord's commands?" And Malachi's response is, "the day is coming, blazing like an oven, when all the proud and all evildoers will be stubble".

In the gospel reading from Luke, it starts off with "some people were speaking about how the temple was adorned with costly stones and votive offerings" to which Jesus replies, "All that you see here – the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down."

If we follow the teachings of the Church, all areas of our life should be dedicated to God. The Catholic Church is referred to as "The Pilgrim Church" on earth, and each of us is a pilgrim. The moment we are born is the start of our pilgrimage and the moment we die is the end of our pilgrimage. This world is not our true home – heaven is the destination of our pilgrimage.

Pilgrims travel light and only take the necessary items on their journey. They travel with a purpose and a specific destination in mind. They don't get bogged down carrying things they don't need. Material items are necessary, but only if they facilitate the journey to their final destination. A pilgrim's mindset is the opposite of the message we get from this world.

When we recognize we are pilgrims, it changes the way we act, what we do, and what we buy. We see everything here on earth as temporary. It allows us to focus on what is important in the long term. It becomes apparent to us, every decision we make, is a spiritual decision. Yes, we do need things like place to live, food to eat, a job to provide for ourselves and our families. But when we see even those things as opportunities to make a spiritual decision, it might lead us to a better choice, that leads us closer to God. On our pilgrimage, we are always moving, either toward God and heaven, or away. The people we hang around, can draw us closer to God, or they can pull us away from God. Even the simple decisions we make on the way to work or school, to be courteous or not, affects our journey, our pilgrimage.

We don't want to be like the arrogant and evildoers that Malachi says will one day be stubble. All of our possessions will one day be like the temple stones, thrown down and worthless to us. When we recognize we truly are pilgrims heading to our true home in heaven, our decision making will become more focused, and the decisions we make throughout our journey, will become spiritual decisions, leading us to eternal life with God in heaven.

NATIONAL
Eucharistic Revival

Where is the Eucharist mentioned in the Bible?

The Lord Jesus, on the night before he suffered on the cross, shared one last meal with his disciples. During this meal our Savior instituted the sacrament of his Body and Blood. He did this in order to perpetuate the sacrifice of the Cross throughout the ages and to entrust to the Church a memorial of his death and resurrection. The Institution of the Eucharist is written down in the four Gospels below:

Matthew 26:26-30

Mark 14:22-26

Luke 22:14-20

John 6:22-59 (The Bread of Life Discourse)
