“In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge” (Psalm 90)

As we are preparing to celebrate the Feast of our parish, The Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we are invited to reflect on our birth into new life. It is the life of Grace we live in as we remember our Baptism. In Confirmation we pray for courage and the Holy Spirit, in Eucharist, we receive the necessary nourishment. Our faith offers us so much, that sometimes it might be overwhelming, but Jesus reminds us of the importance of the 10 Commandments, as our moral guidance. The Church celebrates with us the 7 Sacraments and the saints provide us with practical approach to the above. The Gospel today, tells us that if we find ourselves frightened, overwhelmed, even lost, that we need to remember where we have come from and who is at the foundation of our faith and Church. After all, Jesus died for His beloved Bride, the Church. He died for me and you, so be not afraid, celebrate and remember that our local Family is part of Divine Plan of Salvation.

History of Our Lady of the Black Hills Year Description. 1904 is the earliest written record of Catholic services held in Piedmont Valley at the schoolhouse in French District. 1916 Construction of St. Mary's Catholic Church begin in the fall. Captain C. V. Gardner donated five lots on the southwest corner of Park and Second Streets in Piedmont for the church building and rectory. P. T. Casserly, a farmer from Elkton S.D. donated an entire year's income of $500 towards the building of the church – in memory of his wife, who had died in childbirth. Volunteers help in the construction. Father Fitzgerald celebrated the first Mass. 1959 Under the direction of Father Dominic Lavan, a Benedictine monk, the little white church, and rectory were completely remodeled with volunteer help. 1979 A new church, Our Lady of the Black Hills, was built on land located halfway between Piedmont and Black Hawk, part of which was a gift from Richard and Heloisa Burns in memory of Richard's mother. The $300,000 church, rectory and social center complex was built with a savings of $140,000 due to the work of dedicated volunteers. The first Mass was celebrated by Fr. Nebilo on October 10. 1983 New classrooms were added by excavating the area under the former rectory (St. Joseph's Hall). Parishioners donated all the labor and materials – at a total savings of $16,000. By 1985 Our Lady of the Black Hills parish was completely out of debt. In 1996 OLBH started expansion on the existing building, adding more classrooms, office space and enlarging the church area. Under the direction of Fr. Peter Kovarik, volunteer laborers again saved the church several hundred thousand dollars in building costs. The first Mass was celebrated in the new church on the weekend before Christmas of 1996. In 2005, the interior of the church was updated. A new altar, ambo and baptismal font were made from Crazy Horse granite and brass. The former cry room at the front of the church was converted into a Blessed Sacrament chapel. A new cross for over the altar was painted by Terry Nelson. A new confessional and statue rooms were built. The former confessional/storage area was torn down and converted into a choir area. With the passing of time, we are looking into proper upkeep of the Church, with hope of the good future.

With hope, we look now to the next chapter of our parish. Please, consider making a regular or one time donation towards the Building Savings. Envelopes are in the pews, or there is an option for an online donation. Our Lady of the Black Hills, Pray for us. Fr. Andrzej

“Heal Your Grief” Bereavement Support

When a loved one dies, we are wounded. Just as a wound does, we need to heal from within, to express our thoughts and feelings. A support group is a safe place where you can talk, cry, and share your anger, guilt, and fears with those who understand. Rooted in Catholic teaching, Heal Your Grief is an eight-week support group open to all Christian adults who have lost a loved one due to death. For more information contact George Wallace at 605-721-3811 or Dee Pickarts at 605-343-2038. Sponsored by Family Life Ministries. For more questions call Amy Julian 605-343-3541 or visit www.rapidcitydiocese.org/FLM.

COR<sub>ad</sub>COR

A SMALL GROUP RETREAT BASED ON THE SPIRITUAL EXERCISES OF ST. IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA

Visit <https://www.rapidcitydiocese.org/coradcor/>.
OLBH will host a Cor ad Cor group this fall.

The Cor ad Cor retreat is a weekly small group gathering of all men or all women to learn more about the spiritual life, to grow in relationship and conversation with the Lord, and to share faith and the work of the Lord with others. The retreat begins with the Oremus program from Ascension Press (8 weeks) and then moves into the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola according to the 19th annotation (additional 22 weeks). Small groups of about six people meet weekly with a trained leader for these 30 weeks. Small groups gather each week to learn and talk about the life of prayer and what the Lord is doing in them. Registration is now open, and each small group only contains eight retreatants. Register soon as groups fill up quickly! Groups begin to meet at various days, times, and locations starting the week of October 2.

Written by THE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Often, before writing these reflections, I take a minute to pray. I decided to add a minute of mindfulness using my new Apple Watch, which conveniently provides a meditation prompt. Today's happened to be: "Bring to mind a close relationship that can be challenging, and think about what it can teach you." Like those paper messages in fortune cookies, even this auto-generated prompt carried a grain of truth. Our thoughts may turn to our spouse, a prickly co-worker, or a moody teen. However, given today's readings, it struck me that this description can also fit our relationship with Jesus. Yes, we know that Jesus loves us, shepherds us, forgives us ... but he also challenges us! He reminds us today that being a disciple requires that we go all in, prepared to place our relationship with Jesus above all else. Easier said than done. But we can start, one minute at a time, with our prayers, priorities, and actions. We can also follow the example of saints such as Paul, imprisoned for preaching the Gospel, and the saints among us who teach us by example.

STUDY Take time to read about the lives of a few saints. What habits did they create to lead holy lives? What vices did they give up for Christ's sake to truly become his disciple?

GO EVANGELIZE | PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

I bet we all know people we would consider saints, or at least well on their way: A compassionate friend, a priest or lay minister at our parish, a generous neighbor, that person who has not let suffering and loss shake their faith. Then there are the saints we Catholics celebrate each day: Francis, who threw off the cloak of privilege to live for Christ; Mother Teresa, who served others day in and day out even as she faced a spiritual drought; Paul, the one-time persecutor who built up the early Church and whose letters continue to inspire Christians. Each of them took Jesus' words at face value and laid down their lives for him. Learning how to be a disciple of Christ from studying the lives of the saints can be an ongoing pursuit throughout our lives. But perhaps we can also learn from a "living saint," if the opportunity presents itself, and ask, in so many words, "what's your secret?" It may be praying first thing in the morning, or something practical that we had not considered, such as managing their time in such a way that allows them to volunteer regularly or to be a continuous presence in the life of someone who needs them. If other priorities have gotten in the way of our relationship with Jesus, perhaps we can challenge ourselves to develop new habits. Even an incremental change – such as spending less time or money on nonessentials or reading an inspirational book – can help us reignite our faith and free up our time to focus on someone or something other than ourselves.
