

If you love me

Jn 14:15a

Happy Mother's Day to all mothers. Today provides an opportunity for us to return our mother's love to her. To recognize all she has done for us, to acknowledge our gratitude for her. When we love someone, like our mother, we tend to do what they ask of us, because it is asked in love. This aligns with what we hear in today's gospel reading from John, where Jesus says, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments."

Often when we hear the word "commandments", we tend to think of the Ten Commandments found in the Old Testament. But Jesus gives a new commandment, that we hear in John 13:34, "I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." But loving one another, often can be very difficult to do. How do I love the person that just cut me off in traffic? How do I love the neighbor or coworker who says things we disagree with, are hurtful, or simply hateful? How do I love the person who caused me or a member of my family harm? I don't know about you, but generally, I struggle greatly to love these types of people. In fact, I often fail when I attempt to do it on my own.

Fortunately, Jesus and His Father loves me. As Jesus says in the gospel reading, "I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always". In the past, I don't think I every truly prayed, or even acknowledged, the Holy Spirit. But after attending a retreat on the Holy Spirit, I began to at least acknowledge the Holy Spirit. And eventually the Holy Spirit became part of my regular prayer life. Every day when I open scripture to pray with it, my prayer starts with acknowledging God, praising God, blessing God, and thanking God for everything He has given or done for me. And then, I ask God the Father, to send the Holy Spirit to be with me, to help me understand what He is trying to reveal to me, in the scripture I am about to pray with. And in the end, usually in Jesus' voice, I hear what He wants to reveal to me. This is exactly what Jesus says will happen at the end of the gospel. "And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him."

May God bless all mothers, living and deceased, this Mother's Day. And may God abundantly bless each of you with the gift of the Advocate, so you can keep Jesus' commandments.

Deacon Greg

INTERCESSORY PRAYER TO NICHOLAS BLACK ELK
Say this prayer for the wellbeing & healing of
Fr. Andrzej Wrosteck

Heavenly Father, Great Spirit! Behold Us who stand before you singing our song of thanksgiving for Servant of God Nicholas Black Elk. Faithfully he walked the Sacred Red Road and generously witnessed the Good News of our Lord Jesus Christ to the Native American people. We humbly ask you to hear the prayers we plead through his intercession.

Dear Servant of God Nicholas Black Elk hear our petition in favor of your devoted servant Father Andrzej Wrosteck who lies ill and entreats your intercession on his behalf. Carry to our Heavenly Father the prayer of his parishioners for the healing of his body and spirit.

Amen

What is a Mass Intention?

Each time a priest celebrates Mass he offers the celebration of the Eucharist for a specific person or intention. By doing so he employs special graces from God upon that intention.

This is like how we intercede for others through personal prayer. As ‘the source and summit of Christian life,’ Mass has a power that our personal prayer does not.

Mass for particular intentions is an ancient practice. “Inscriptions discovered on tombs in Roman catacombs of the second century [provide] evidence [for] this practice: for example, the epitaph on the tomb of Abercius (d.180), Bishop of Hieropolis in Phrygia, begs prayers for the repose of his soul.” This tradition was also seen in St. Augustine’s Confessions (c.397), where Monica asks Augustine, “One thing only I ask you, that you remember me at the Altar of the Lord.”

Canon Law confirms this practice, “In accordance with the approved practice of the Church, any priest celebrating or concelebrating is permitted to receive an offering to apply the Mass for a specific intention” (Can.945 1).

- excerpt from aletia.org; written by Philip Kosloski

To request a Mass intention please contact Katie in the office at 605-787-5168. We also have cards for you to send those you have requested a Mass for. The suggested stipend for a Mass intention paid to the priest is $10.

A prayer for Mothers

Dear mother, intercede for all of our mothers. Ask your Divine Son to give them the grace of surrendered love so that they could join with you in giving their own “Fiat.” May they find daily strength to say yes to the call to the sacrificial love - the very heart of the vocation of motherhood. Amen.

WSDCF to Host Fishing Events Benefitting Seminarians

Saturday June 17 and 24 the Western South Dakota Catholic Foundation will host fishing tournaments in Rapid City and Lemmon to benefit our Vocations Program Office in support of Seminarians. The first event will be a children's tournament at Canyon Lake Park on June 17, 2023; from Noon -3 followed by an afternoon Mass 5:30 PM and fish fry 6:30 PM by the Blessed Sacrament Knights of Columbus. The following Saturday, June 24, 2023, we will welcome adults to participate in a day of fishing at the Shadehill Reservoir followed by Mass and a Fish Fry at the Summerville Store and St. Mary's Parish in Lemmon. For details contact Paul or Cheryl the WSDCF at (605) 721-6843.

KW Players present The Tidings Brought to Mary

The KW Players Catholic Youth Theatre Troupe will present its production on Friday, May 19, at 7:00pm, and Sunday, May 21, at 4:00pm, in the Blessed Sacrament parish theatre room. This is a spiritual mystery play about the saving power of sacrificial love in a medieval French farming family. The KW Players were founded in the spirit of Pope St. John Paul II's Rhapsodic Theatre, formed to preserve artistic culture, and oppose Nazi oppression in 1940s Poland. This performance is suitable for ages 8 yrs. and up and admission is free. Seating is limited and a nursery will be provided.

Sioux Spiritual Center Help Needed

Would you like to take a working weekend retreat to the Sioux Spiritual Center near Howes SD? From putting together Gazebo kits, working on Mary gardens, yard work, clearing deadfalls and just praying for those that are out doing the work. Days would look something like 0800 breakfast with work till noon, lunch, start again at 1 and finish at 3 with the Devine Mercy Chaplet. The rest is for you to enjoy the presence of the Lord in the beauty around you, the chapel, or in front of the Tabernacle. If this interests you, please contact Bob at 605-389-6934 with SSC the first entry on texts.

The Sioux Spiritual Center is working on its first Hermitage giving the SSC the ability to have 30-day silent retreats and still be able to use the SSC for other functions. Those gifted with the ability to construct would be great, but the energy and drive, we can work on the rest. If you are a plumber or electrician, your skills would be so greatly appreciated. Financial sponsors for specific needs could be arranged, such as funding the HVAC, or kitchen items etc. If able to and the Spirit is moving you, please contact bob at 605-389-6934.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I know a few people whose method of book buying is to read the last few pages of a book first. They want to know if buying, or reading, the book is going to be worth it. As an avid bibliophile I find this to be something I could never do, but I understand their impulse. After all, it makes sense to want to have some kind of assurance that the journey one is taking – whether physical, spiritual, or literary – has a decent “payoff,” as it were. In today’s Gospel, Jesus promises his disciples that when he leaves he will provide “another Advocate” for them. We see this truth in action in the first reading, as with the laying on of hands by the apostles, those who had been baptized in Jesus’ name “received the Holy Spirit.” Christ’s life, death, and resurrection not only conquered death and brought us new life, it made way for the Holy Spirit who has come to dwell among and within us. The Lord has not left us alone. So while we may have a sense of what the sequel to our journey is, we trust the author of our story to help us write the ending of this one.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

The love of God and the gift of faith from the Holy Spirit brought the earliest disciples, and us, to the journey – to our own story of a life of discipleship. And while the Bible is indeed “a book,” it is also a compilation of books, letters, and events, and more, that give words to a living history of salvation that began before time and is outside of time and eternal. The Good News cannot be contained in pages – it must be lived, shared, and loved. And yes, it is good to know how it ends, but even that pales in relation to the joy and worthiness of the reading and living of the Word. That is for us to experience, and to share! As much gratification as there is in sharing our favorite new bestseller, we need to double and revamp our efforts when it comes to the Gospel. Give it away freely, to everyone, and shout out the ending. Jesus Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! And the Holy Spirit sets us free to love him and one another.

STUDY In order to truly live the Word and spread it to others as Jesus commanded, we must be familiar with the Scriptures. The Word on Fire Bible, featuring the Gospels only, is well-designed and includes commentary from Bishop Robert Barron as well as Church Fathers and recent saints and Catholic authors.
