Friday, September 8th is the Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary and our parish feast day. The blessed mother's birthday is celebrated on this day because it is 9 months after the feast of the immaculate conception which is on December 8th. Mary's birth is not mentioned in the bible; however, it does appear in the early Christian work called the protoevangelium of James. This story tells us that Mary's parents were Joachim and Anna who had longed for a child of their own. They prayed to God who answered them by sending angels to announce that Anna would conceive and bear a child who would be spoken of in all the world. This early Christian story although not considered inspired or authoritative still outlines some of the Church's traditional beliefs about the birth of Mary. We celebrate Mary's birth because of her vital role in salvation history, that Jesus himself from the Cross gave her to us as our spiritual mother and that she is the Queen of Heaven.

A few years ago, our parish decided to have an annual Parish Feast Day, and it was important to choose a day that would encompass the spirit of Our Lady of the Black Hills and what better day than a Marian Feast Day. A discussion was made to ask the parishioners in a poll which of the Marian Feast Days would be best and you answered, the Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

This next weekend we will be celebrating both The Blessed Virgin Mary's birthday and our Parish Feast Day. As we come together as a community, we celebrate God's love for us, who provided us with Mother Mary, who always leads us to know and love her son. We also celebrate the many times our families have encountered Christ in the Sacraments and especially those received at Our Lady of the Black Hills. I can't imagine how many Baptisms, First Communions, Confirmations, Weddings, and Ordinations have been held in this parish! There have been many joyous occasions celebrated here as well as many sad ones where we had to say goodbye to a loved one. In all these occasions, I hope that Our Lady of the Black Hills has provided your family with love, support, and comfort.

I hope to see you next weekend and for more information on the history of Our Lady of the Black Hills, check out <https://www.olbh.org/history>.

Happy Birthday Mother Mary! Happy Feast Day Our Lady of the Black Hills! For a list of events visit olbh.org/parish-feast-day.

EDWARD SRI

What is "right" and "wrong"? Is what's right for you right for me? Is there a right and wrong for everyone, all the time? How do we talk about morality in a relativistic world?

In "Who am I to Judge?" Dr. Edward Sri tackles these challenging questions in an 8-week, small-group format.

CELEBRATE PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY!

Sunday, September 24, Priesthood Sunday is a day set aside to honor priesthood in order to raise awareness to vocations to priesthood. This is a time, like Father's Day, that we can make our priests, our Spiritual Fathers, feel special and appreciated. Let your pastor know how much you appreciate his time and energy in his ministry with your parish with a card, a phone call, or a meal at your house or a gift card to a restaurant! Don't forget about retired priests and past priests of your parish. This nationwide event is coordinated and sponsored by the USA Council of Serra International and the Serra International Foundation. For more ideas on how to celebrate Priesthood Sunday in your parish, please visit the Serra Club's website: serraus.org/priesthood-Sunday/

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jer 20:7-9 | Rom 12:1-2 | Mt 16:21-27

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I am glad I was duped. Yep, the illusionist in the show we attended had me fooled into seeing something one way and it turns out it was completely false. The show was entertaining, and worth the time and expense we invested to enjoy it. And ... it may be the only circumstance where the word “duped” can be used in the same sentence as “glad.” That certainly wasn’t Jeremiah’s experience! His prayer reflects frustration and hurt, and even a little bit of disgust at how he has been treated because of the Lord: “I say to myself, I will not mention him, I will speak in his name no more.” But then, even in his discontent and disillusion, he holds on to the truth. For right after this rebellious admission, he confesses that the need to prophesy “becomes like fire burning in my heart, imprisoned in my bones; I grow weary holding it in, I cannot endure it.” He knows he was never really duped – there was no lie from the Lord. And the fact is, he believes and trusts in the Lord enough to pray to him in the first place; even in his prayer of lament he is praising the Lord as God and redeemer. Jeremiah’s example is a good one for us: Never lose sight of the Lord as our God. Pray to him; give over our frustrations to him; and allow him to be the fire burning in our heart that we cannot quench.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Reading today’s Gospel leaves me feeling awkward and even embarrassed for St. Peter. Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior, calling the first pope Satan and telling Peter to get behind him – super embarrassing, especially when Peter had good intentions in trying to protect Jesus. What’s the old saying, “The road to hell is paved with good intentions”? There’s another axiom, a little less dire but just as pointed: “People judge you by your actions, not your intentions. You may have a heart of gold, but so does a hard-boiled egg.” Intentions matter – but how we enact and employ those intentions are important, too. Christ tells us in today’s Gospel, “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.” Faith in God, believing in his promises, and wanting to obey his commandments are wonderful and essential – and they are the foundation of a life lived for Christ. But they are not the entirety of it, and while denying ourselves and taking up our cross is never easy, it is necessary. “What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?” Christ asks. Let’s pray for the grace of pure intentions and the strength to live them in service to the Lord.

PRAY Heavenly Father, uncover my eyes and reveal any obstacles keeping me from thinking as you do. Give me the courage to overcome these obstacles, and grant me the strength to take up my cross and follow you, even in the face of difficulty. I ask this through your Son, Christ our Lord.
