"One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God." (Mt 4:4B)

As we begin our Lenten journey we focus more on our relationship with Christ. Lent is a time of discovering who Jesus is in our life and how do we respond to His invitation. We come to know Jesus through scripture, prayer and charity. "In the cycle of weekday readings, Lent falls into two parts. The first part, including the pre-Lent of Ash Wednesday and the rest of the week, runs through to Saturday of the third week of Lent. In these three and a half weeks, the Gospel texts are taken from the Synoptics; and the Old Testament readings are chosen accordingly. The message running throughout is a call to a life of Gospel conversion. The Letters speak of beginning anew, of fasting, prayer and almsgiving; of conversion; of mutual forgiveness; of hardness of heart; of love of enemies; of the call to holiness; and so forth.

The readings for the second half of Lent are taken from the Gospel of John, beginning on the Monday of the fourth week of Lent (John 4:43) and going through, omitting passages read on Sundays and during Easter, to John 13. It is clear that these readings from John constitute a kind of 'crash course' in the life of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, of whom John says that all who believe in him will have eternal life. Christ is presented as the healer and life-giver, as the one who gives life through his confrontation with death and gathers into one the scattered children of God.

How do these two sections of the lectionary fit together and what can they tell us about the spirit of Lent? The shift from the 'ethical' to 'Christological' is no accident. The purpose of the first part of Lent is to challenge us to look at any self-deceit about the quality of our lives as disciples of Jesus. By challenging us with demands which we come to recognize as being quite beyond us, the Gospel passages are meant to trouble us, to confront our illusions about ourselves. Realizing our failure in following the demands of Lent and of Jesus brings home to us our radical need of salvation. With that realization we shift from the demands of discipleship to the person of Jesus. John presents Jesus as the Savior, but Jesus can only save those who know their need for salvation. "Confronted with our powerlessness we pray for our salvation." (The Spirit of Lent," Mark Searle)

In this season of Lent, let us not focus only on fulfilling the call to prayer, fasting and charity. Let us ponder and pray about what is there that holds us back from our journey with Christ. What "fears" we carry, and are faced with, that hold us back from the love of God. In our prayer, fasting and charity, let us discover anew the presence of Christ in the Eucharist, and through Reconciliation let us discover anew mercy of God, and through Charity, let us discover anew love for others and for ourselves. May you find strength in prayer and come to know Jesus more and more in your life even if it means being challenged. Let us not be afraid to become a source of life to all once Lent is over. It is only then that the Easter celebration begins.

The Traveling Chalice program is resuming, beginning in March. The Traveling Chalice program encourages everyone to pray and promote vocations to the Priesthood, Diaconate, Married, and Religious Life. The consecrated Chalice is used as a focal reminder of Christ's body and blood as central to our faith and the role of our priests at Mass. The chalice aids us in focusing our prayer time for this special intention and need in the Diocese of Rapid City. To find out more information and to schedule a week for your family to host the traveling chalice in your home, please call Angela in the office at 605-787-5168.

Living The Christian Life Fully: Prayer, Self-sacrifice, and Fraternity

An overview of the non-negotiable, and too often unmentioned, components of the Christian life. These talks shed light on the difficult and selfless life the Lord commands us to live through both the old and the new testament, the life that Christ himself modeled for us, the Christian life. They give an overview of a life of personal prayer, self-sacrifice, and real fraternity. In addition to opening our eyes to the non-negotiables of the Christian life, it also provides us with practical examples and steps to Live Different.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Superbowl Sunday was two weeks ago, and many of us were more likely interested in the commercials than the actual game. After all, companies pay a ton of money to have their products paraded in front of us, and – in theory at least – take the time to make these particular ads memorable and funny. If we can be convinced that we will be better people, or our social outings greater and filled with more laughter, we will buy what they are selling. It's the modern version of the words of the serpent in today's first reading: if you eat this, "you will be like gods"! Today's readings are a reminder that we are all sinners and burdened by being vulnerable to false promises – but also that we are relieved of this burden through one man: Jesus Christ. If we tend to forget that the most important part of our salvation story is that it is full of more grace and forgiveness than we can comprehend, this first Sunday of Lent is a good time to prayerfully ponder this. If God seems far away or distant, let us recall that he loved us so much that he breathed our very life into us, and then gave his only begotten Son to us that we might have life eternally. All he asks in return is for us to accept this gift and follow in his footsteps. Lent is the time to be mindful of grace-filled opportunities that draw us closer to God.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Let's think about these 40 days. In addition to allowing us to grow in understanding of God, this time is also an opportunity to grow in our understanding of how we can be the hands and feet of Jesus in the world and help to build the kingdom right here and now. How can we keep God at the center of our lives and resist worldly temptations to push him aside? Perhaps today's psalm can help us here: Ask for God's mercy, acknowledge our offenses, seek a "clean heart," renew a "steadfast spirit" within us, and ask God to grant us a "willing spirit" to give him praise. And remember Christ's words from the Gospel: Depend on "every word that comes forth from the mouth of God," which is love and mercy.

PRAY Pray today's psalm: "Give me back the joy of your salvation, and a willing spirit sustain in me. O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth shall proclaim your praise."

OFFICE OF BISHOP

February 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Thank you for your generous support of the Black and Indian Mission Collection, which is scheduled the weekend of March 4-5 in our diocese. The Black and Indian Mission Collection, established as the first National Collection in 1874, has proven itself to be a successful vehicle for sharing the resources of the Church's members to provide for the needs of our African American, Native American, and Alaska Native brothers and sisters.

Pope Francis reminds us that everyone is called to evangelize. This Collection clearly helps us answer Pope Francis' call to us to work as a family to help all of our brothers and sisters and to share the love, faith and hope of Jesus Christ.

Your support provides for the presence of ministers in missions, parishes, schools, religious education programs and the many diocesan programs and projects that strengthen the work of the Gospel. Your sacrifice impacts pastoral work across the country and addresses the need to train catechists, permanent deacons, and seminarians for future generations.

Locally, the funds received each year from the national collection help support our Sioux Spiritual Center, Native Ministry Office, Catholic schools on the reservations and religious education and pastoral activities in the mission parishes in western South Dakota. Without the support of this national collection, we would be unable to provide many of these services to those most in need.

Please consider a sacrificial gift to the 2023 National Black and Indian Mission Collection and continue to support the evangelization efforts for African American, Native American and Alaska Native communities in the United States. Help us invite all peoples to open the door of faith and begin the journey of a lifetime!

Thank you again for your generous support.

Sincerely in the love of Christ,

Most Rev. Peter M. Muhich
Bishop of Rapid City
