“The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest.”

(Mt 9:37-38)

Jubilation from John

Among a nomadic people wandering an arid wasteland, God planted a seed. By his almighty power and because of his boundless love, He led these chosen people out of slavery and into a promised homeland. He cultivated the seed in a narrow strip of land between the shores of the Mediterranean Sea and the Jordan River—barely the distance from here to Wall Drug—a promised land roughly bounded by the Sea of Galilee on the north and the Dead Sea to the south. With endless patience—through war and pestilence, insubordination and outright revolt—for centuries, God awaited the harvest...

Among twelve men of limited means, probably with meager educations and sometimes with questionable backgrounds, God planted a seed. His heart was moved with pity at the sight of the promise unfulfilled—the harvest stunted and strangled by sin—and he planted again. He took his finest seed—his only begotten Son, the seed of a new covenant—and sowed it among four fishermen, a tax collector, a half-dozen more without any notable vocations—and a traitor. In the fallow and poorly tended fields of the old covenant—the troubled and abandoned sheep of his chosen people—he saw the promise of a rich harvest. But indeed, the laborers were few...

From this seed crop of Apostles, the Gospel has been scattered and sown over the entire world. The Master of the Harvest called other laborers to the field—and the Apostles laid hands on them and instructed them and sent them to plant and harvest. Through the line of apostolic succession, the seed of the new covenant has been handed down from bishop to bishop for two millennia. These bishops have laid their hands upon others to assist them in the fields—priests to perpetuate the sacrifice of Christ in persona Christi and deacons to serve the Body of Christ with charity, at the altar and in the Word.

On Thursday, June 29, at the 5:30 Mass at the Cathedral, Bishop Muhich will continue this tradition of sending forth laborers for the harvest in the Diocese of Rapid City. He will lay hands upon seven men and ordain them to the Order of Deacons. Among them will be Mr. Phil Thompson from our parish, carrying on a heritage of diaconal ministry embodied by four other men who have been called from OLBH, starting with Dcn. Walt Wilson in 1981. This abundant harvest of permanent deacons from our parish never would have occurred without your encouragement and your prayers—they are the fruit of your labors. I strongly encourage you to attend the ordination on June 29 and prayerfully support Phil and his cohort as they receive the Sacrament of Holy Orders.

God has planted a seed in the hearts of seven men, and the harvest is at hand. However, I know personally that the harvest time is when the grain is most vulnerable to the fickle winds of doubt and the crushing hail of the oppressor. Therefore, I ask you to labor even more fervently on their behalf over the next couple weeks. Beginning June 20 and continuing for nine days, please pray daily the Novena for Diaconate Ordination found in this bulletin. May the words of Jesus to the seed crop of Apostles inspire you: “Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give” (Mt 10:8).

Novena For Diaconate Ordination

— From the Office of the Permanent Diaconate
to be prayed June 20-28

Almighty God, giver of every grace, who apportion every order and assign every office, who remain unchanged, but make all things new, send your Holy Spirit into our midst to make our brothers preparing for ordination to the diaconate ready to offer themselves in the ministry of the word, of the altar, and of charity, servants to all.

Grant them wisdom when they are unsure, knowledge when they are afraid, counsel when they are confused, fortitude when they are fragile, understanding when they are troubled, piety when they are indifferent, and fear of you when they are proud.

Help them to receive the Gospel of Christ: convince them to believe what they read; train them to teach what they believe; strengthen them to practice what they teach.

Hear the prayers of all your faithful servants and in the eternal charity that you have shown us, draw us all to that heavenly kingdom where all are made perfectly one at the eternal banquet of Christ, the Good Shepherd and Eternal King. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

You're invited to a special event!

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

This week we celebrated the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. This long-standing devotion in the Church takes the physical heart of Jesus as representation of His Divine Love for humanity and emphasizes the unmitigated love, compassion, and long-suffering of the heart of Christ towards humanity. During the National Eucharistic Revival we are invited to pray this prayer of St. Peter Julian Eymard, which beautifully connects Jesus' Sacred Heart to His presence in the Eucharist:

O my God, in a spirit of adoration, thanksgiving, reparation and petition
I offer you the actions and sufferings of this day in union with the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, in order to render to that adorable Heart dwelling among us,
the debt of justice and love due to his august Presence,
and moreover to offer to your Divine Majesty through him,
with him and in him the glory that he himself renders you here on earth.
Lastly, I make this offering to obtain by means of that Almighty Mediator, peace for the Church, salvation for our country and all the other graces for which we call on you.
Amen!

Sioux Spiritual Center Help Needed

We need help putting together Gazebo kits, working on Mary gardens, yard work, clearing deadfalls and just praying for those that are out doing the work. Days would look like 0800 breakfast with work till noon, lunch, start again at 1 and finish at 3 with the Devine Mercy Chaplet. Also, the Sioux Spiritual Center is working on its first Hermitage giving the SSC the ability to have 30-day silent retreats and still be able to use the SSC for other functions. If you are a plumber or electrician, your skills would be appreciated. Financial sponsors for specific needs could be arranged, such as funding the HVAC, or kitchen items etc. If this interests you, please contact Bob at 605-389-6934 with SSC the first entry on texts.
