“Why are you standing there looking at the sky?”

(Acts 1:11)

Jubilation from John

A tremendous amount of time and energy is focused on the way that Jesus came into the world. Christmas has become the most commercialized feast in Christendom and beyond, but despite the worldly distractions and diversions, even the greediest merchant probably knows the story of a baby born in a stable, of shepherds and Magi, of angels and a star in the east. Yes, the world—Christian and otherwise—tends to focus on the way Jesus came into the world. But as Christians, I think the far more important event for us should be how Jesus left this world.

As St. Paul declared to the Ephesians, in this singular event, Jesus demonstrated his power “far above every principality, authority, power, and dominion.” In this singular event, the Father conclusively revealed his relationship with the Son “seating him at his right hand in the heavens.” In this singular event, God showed us “the hope that belongs to his call.”

Although the timing is somewhat unbiblical, I’m glad that most US dioceses transfer the celebration of Jesus’ ascension from 40 days after Easter to the following Sunday. I think that these final moments in the earthly ministry of Christ are too essential, too crucial, too significant to leave to a weekday—even if it is a Holy Day of Obligation. So why is how Jesus left this world so important that we take a Sunday to focus on it?

Another ascension story gives us part of the answer. You may recall a news report a few years ago about a 33-year-old truck driver from Los Angeles named Larry Walters. Larry always dreamed of flying, and one day, as he was sitting in his aluminum lawn chair in the backyard, he got a “bright” idea. He hooked 45 helium-filled weather balloons to his lawn chair, slung a BB-gun over his shoulder to pop the balloons, and he “ascended”—not a few hundred feet as he had planned, but straight up to 11,000 feet, right through the approach corridor to LA International! Somehow, Larry did manage to land safely, and when he was asked by the press why he did it, he simply answered: “Well, you can’t just sit there.”

If we could ask Jesus Christ today why he ascended, he might answer like Larry, “Well, I just couldn’t sit there.” If he had “just sat there,” we would have been stuck—God’s plan of salvation would not have moved forward. It would have remained “stuck” among a few handfuls of followers in a backwater strip of land between the Mediterranean Sea and the Jordan River. Christ “couldn’t just sit there” despite the fears and uncertainties of those followers. He was “stuck” by his human nature—he was only one man, despite his resurrected body.

As Jesus told his disciples at the Last Supper, “It is better for you that I go. For if I do not go, the Advocate will not come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you” (Jn 16:7). Without the Ascension, there would be no descent of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles—no birth of the Church. That’s how crucial Ascension is in God’s plan of salvation for you and me! The Ascension is Jesus Christ’s call to action—not just for the first disciples, but for us, his disciples today. Through the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation, we have been empowered by the Holy Spirit to be Christ’s “witnesses... to the ends of the earth” (Acts 1:8). So go, make disciples, baptize, teach. You can’t just sit there!

Keep the Faith!

Sioux Spiritual Center Help Needed

Would you like to take a working weekend retreat to the Sioux Spiritual Center near Howes SD? From putting together Gazebo kits, working on Mary gardens, yard work, clearing deadfalls and just praying for those that are out doing the work. Days would look something like 0800 breakfast with work till noon, lunch, start again at 1 and finish at 3 with the Devine Mercy Chaplet. The rest is for you to enjoy the presence of the Lord in the beauty around you, the chapel, or in front of the Tabernacle. If this interests you, please contact Bob at 605-389-6934 with SSC the first entry on texts.

The Sioux Spiritual Center is working on its first Hermitage giving the SSC the ability to have 30-day silent retreats and still be able to use the SSC for other functions. Those gifted with the ability to construct would be great, but the energy and drive, we can work on the rest. If you are a plumber or electrician, your skills would be so greatly appreciated. Financial sponsors for specific needs could be arranged, such as funding the HVAC, or kitchen items etc. If able to and the Spirit is moving you, please contact bob at 605-389-6934.

The Ascension of the Lord

Acts 1:1-11 | Eph 1: 17-23 | Mt 28: 16-20

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Actions speak louder than words. How many of us have heard or said this exact phrase? I suspect most, if not all of us are quite familiar with this old adage. In fact, this is exactly what we are being told by Jesus himself in today's Gospel when he says, "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations." Jesus continues his direction of action by telling us to baptize "in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." We are not directed to simply speak about Jesus with our families and church communities, we are told to GO among all nations and add to Jesus' flock. We continue Christ's mission when we seek to spread his love. Before Jesus joined his Father in heaven, his instructions were very clear. This is an opportunity to think about the commission we were given as part of the baptized community, and how Jesus is asking us to take action in his name.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Easier said than done. We've all heard that one as well. It's hard to feel equipped to spread the word and the will of God. We worry our words will fail us and we will look foolish. We know we are not perfect, and wonder if that means we cannot possibly be Christ's hands and feet on this earth. However, today's reading from Ephesians provides us with the perfect prayer to give us hope and faith in the Holy Spirit as we set out to fulfill the Great Commission given to us in this week's Gospel: "May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a Spirit of wisdom and revelation resulting in knowledge of him." We are challenged to act for God, but not without being given the tools to do so with confidence.

PRAY Meditate on today's second reading from Ephesians. Read it as if your priest was giving you a blessing before you head out of your house each morning. Let it fill your soul with love and awe for our Father, and let it give you the confidence you need to play an active role in building his kingdom until he comes again.
