Bells have been rung as part of the celebration of the Mass in the Church for more than 800 years but their use actually dates back to the fifth century, when Saint Paulinus, the Bishop of Nola, introduced them as a means to summon monks to worship. In the seventh century Pope Sabinianus approved the use of bells to call the faithful to the Mass. The Venerable Bede, the great English saint of the eighth century, is credited with the introduction of bell ringing at Requiem Masses and by the ninth century the use of bells had spread to even the smallest parish churches of the western Roman Empire.

The council of Trent (1545-1563) formally mandated the use of bells during the celebration of the Mass until the Vatican II council (1962-1965). Bells are no longer mandated nor are they forbidden. Their use is now left up to the discretion of the pastor.

Most bells used today are small hand-held bells or assemblies of three to five bells that are rung during the Mass as directed in Chapter IV, paragraph 150 of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM).

“A little before the consecration, when appropriate, a minister rings a small bell as a signal to the faithful. According to local custom, the minister also rings the small bell at each elevation by the Priest, according to local custom.”

Bells are also rung on Holy Thursday while the Gloria in excelsis is sung then they remain silent until they are rung again as the Gloria is sung once more at the Easter Vigil.

The purpose for ringing bells is to create a joyful noise to the Lord. The sound of the bells adds to the reverence and the solemnity of the Mass. They are a powerful devotional aide which helps to focus the congregation on the consecration, when through the invocation of the Holy Spirit, simple bread and wine become the Body and Blood of our savior Jesus Christ.

During this parish year of the Eucharistic Revival, we are called to reinvigorate our devotion to the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. The ringing of the bells can help in a deep and mysterious way connect people to this sacrament as they are recognized as being part of the rich sacramental tradition of the Church much like oils, statuary, vestments, candles, incense and historic and/or solemn places of worship.

For these reasons, here at Our Lady of the Black Hills Parish, we will return this practical and beautiful tradition to the celebration of our Eucharistic liturgies. This practice will begin during Advent at daily Mass. Then beginning with Christmas, after the altar servers have been trained in their use, this tradition will be restored to our Sunday Liturgies.

SOUTH DAKOTA'S EXTREME ABORTION AMENDMENT

Frequently Asked Questions: What can we do to oppose the proposed abortion amendment?

We can pray that South Dakota will remain a state where all preborn children are welcomed in life and protected by law. Pope St. John Paul II exhorted us to pray fervently for the protection of vulnerable life: "Let us therefore discover anew the humility and the courage to pray and fast so that power from on high will break down the walls of lies and deceit: the walls which conceal from the sight of so many of our brothers and sisters the evil of practices and laws which are hostile to life. May this same power turn their hearts to resolutions and goals inspired by the civilization of life and love." (Evangelium Vitae, par. 100). Stay tuned for further information about the abortion amendment.

Parable of the wise virgins, CCO

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wis 6:12-16 | 1 Thes 4:13-18 | Mt 25:1-13

Written by
THE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I'll always remember that first Easter after my Dad passed away. It was when the promise of the resurrection truly hit home. Sure, I had always believed in heaven and that everyone had the possibility of spending eternity there, but until my Dad died, it had all been theoretical. Now, it was personal. Someone I loved deeply had left this world, but because of Christ's sacrifice, he had the opportunity to go to paradise, someplace where we will hopefully be reunited someday. I believe that's what St. Paul is talking about in today's second reading. We do "not grieve like the rest, who have no hope." We have hope! We have hope for our family, for our friends – for our very selves! – that we will rise again and spend eternity with the Lord and with those we love. Paul writes elsewhere, "Where, O death, is your sting?" (1 Cor 15:55) The sting of death is sin, Paul says, but Christ has won the victory over it. In being baptized into Christ, we share in that victory, and we are inheritors of the promise of eternal life that comes from death's defeat.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

The parable in today's Gospel is a reminder that while Christ has opened the gates of heaven for us, we must be ready to accept that gift and walk through them. In the parable of the ten virgins, we see how all fell asleep while waiting for the bridegroom to arrive. When he did show up, five were ready with oil for their lamps while five were sent scurrying to buy some. As a result, those who were not ready missed the opening of the doors and were locked out of the wedding feast. "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour," Jesus admonishes us. Are you awake? Will you be ready to enter the wedding feast when the door is opened to you? There is nothing wrong with enjoying God's creation and gifts here on earth, but we must guard against getting so caught up in the things of this world that we forget to prepare for the next.

PRAY The ten virgins needed oil for their lamps to be ready for the bridegroom, but we need a clean heart and a steadfast spirit, as Psalm 51 tells us. (12) We get that by setting aside regular time for prayer and making a point to regularly receive the sacraments, including the reception of the body and blood of Jesus in the Eucharist and his forgiveness within the sacrament of reconciliation. Making time for the Lord now will mean we are ready for his return later.
