Dear Friends in the Lord…

Christ is risen! Happy Easter!

When I was eight years old, my mom purchased for me a pair of purple pants to wear for Easter. I remember these pants for two reasons. First, from my eight-year old perspective, I thought they were fashionable. (Remember, this was 1973.) Second, I remember how they made me feel. They were whimsical and sassy, all at the same time and they made me feel pretty good about myself. As I reflect on this experience 45 years later, I have to say that my purple pants were more than something festive to wear to celebrate Easter; they were all about self-expression.

Self-expression has become a core value in our culture. From clothing, to dance moves, to body piercing, to tattoos, to political affiliation, to sexual orientation, to sounds and words, we boldly reveal ourselves to anyone who is willing to take notice.

However we express ourselves, on this Easter Sunday, we remember that the Lord died “once for all” so that we might live. St. Paul proclaims, “…and He died for all, so that they who live might no longer live for themselves, but for Him who died and rose again on their behalf.” (2 Cor 5:15). Neither our outward appearance nor our inward disposition prevent us experiencing the transformative love of Christ boldly displayed through His passion, death, and resurrection. He loves all of us, regardless of our appearance, our orientation, or our interests.

I invite you to read in the next column The Hospitality Manifesto, which I introduced to the Queen of All Saints Parish community during Advent. The message has particular meaning to all Christian communities as we celebrate the Lord’s resurrection from the dead. Hospitality is more than what we do. Hospitality is an expression of our commitment to the person of Jesus, whose love knows no limits. If we practice the Manifesto faithfully, it’s an expression that will last a life time.

Faithfully yours in the Risen Lord,

Dear Friends in the Lord…

Hospitality Manifesto

Who is allowed in our pews?

We extend a special welcome to those who are single, married, divorced, gay, filthy rich, dirt poor, yo no habla ingles, or are a person of color. We extend a special welcome to those who are crying newborns, skinny as a rail, or could afford to lose a few pounds. We welcome you if you can sing like Andrea Bocelli or you can’t carry a note in a bucket. You’re welcome here if you’re “just browsing,” just woke up, or just got out of jail. We don’t care if you’re more Catholic than the Pope, or haven’t been in church since little Joey’s Baptism.

We extend a special welcome to those who are over 60, but not grown up yet, and to teenagers who are growing up too fast. We welcome soccer moms, NASCAR dads, starving artists, tree huggers, latte sippers, vegetarians, and junk-food eaters. We welcome those who are in recovery or still addicted. We welcome you if you’re having problems, you’re down in the dumps, or if you don’t like “organized religion.” We’ve been there too. If you blew all your offering money at the casino, you’re welcome here. We offer a special welcome to those who think the earth is flat, work too hard, don’t work, can’t spell, or are here because grandma is in town and wanted to go to church.

We welcome those who are inked, pierced or both. We offer a special welcome to those who could use a prayer right now, had religion shoved down your throat as a kid, or got lost in traffic and wound up here by mistake. We welcome tourist, seekers and doubters, bleeding hearts…and you!

This is your home, even though you may not have been home for a while.

We’re happy you’re here.

April 21, Easter Sunday

“He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.” (Acts 10:38)

On this Easter Sunday, open your hearts to receive God’s love, mercy and forgiveness. God is love and we are made in His image and likeness. Let our lives reflect His light to others. Pray for guidance on how to live your life and give thanks for all that He has given you.

You are invited to answer the Holy Father’s request and to join with many people worldwide in praying...
