Holy Communion

For the Homebound

Our Ministers to the Sick bring the Eucharist to the homebound and those in care facilities who are not able to come to Mass. If you or a relative would like the Eucharist brought to your home or nursing home, please call our Ministry to the Sick Coordinator, Mary Wresh 748-3639.

If you would like to serve the Lord by bringing Him to our homebound parishioners, please call Mary Wresh at 748-3639. Our Ministers to the Sick attend special training so they are confidently prepared and can focus on the Eucharist and our parishioner during their visit.

At the Hospital

When you or a loved one is in the hospital, please inform the staff at registration or later that you are Catholic and would like to be on the Catholic list so Chaplains and Ministers to the Sick know you are there and can visit you.

HEART TO WITNESS

In a spirit of selfless love for God and others, with how much of your heart do you give witness to the love of God by your life, by your faith-sharing, by your hospitality, and by your frequent invitation to others?

"O God, be merciful to me a sinner. I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former; for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted." Luke 18:14

Reflection for the Week:

How will I witness my love for the Lord in my daily interactions with family and friends?

A Stewardship Moment

There is an interesting twist we find in today's gospel when we hear Jesus' parable of the Pharisee and the tax collector praying in the temple. The Pharisee is "praying to himself." It doesn't mean he was praying silently. It seems to mean something a lot more troubling, that he is praying to himself; that God is not his prayer's intended audience. The words of the Pharisee are very much centered on himself: he makes claims about his character. He highlights his own admirable activities. Good stewards of their prayer lives know that a prayer of praise and thanksgiving should focus on the goodness of God. Do our prayers of thanksgiving always stay focused on God's unfathomable, immeasurable goodness and generosity? (Compliments of International Catholic Stewardship Council)

DOORS OF MERCY Exploring God's Covenant with You

Preview of Lesson 2:

Noah - Restoration

Tuesday, October 25th, from 3:00-4:30 p.m. in the Prayer Room.

Humanity quickly spiraled downward into an abyss of sin and darkness after the Fall from grace in the Garden of Eden. Using polyvalent language, Scripture tells us God grieved over the wickedness of His children and regretted His creation. He decided to wash away the sin of the world. Noah and his family, however, sought to honor God. Therefore, God used them as His instruments to bring about a grand restoration of the world.

Quotation from St. Theresa of Calcutta speaking in Washington D.C.

"God has given your country so much. Do not be afraid of the child now. Do not turn your back to the little unborn child. Stand by that innocent one. My prayer for you and for your whole country is that we may realize the greatness of God's love for us and, with that love, protect the unborn child, the greatest gift of God for each of us and for the world."

PRAYER BEFORE THE ELECTION

Lord God, as the election approaches, we seek to better understand the issues and concerns that confront our city/state/country, and how the Gospel compels us to respond as faithful citizens in our community.

We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, one and equal in dignity, especially those who are victims of abuse and violence, deceit and poverty.

We ask for ears that will hear the cries of children unborn and those abandoned, Men and women oppressed because of race or creed, religion or gender.

We ask for minds and hearts that are open to hearing the voice of leaders who will bring us closer to your Kingdom.

We pray for discernment so that we may choose leaders who hear your Word, live your love, and keep in the ways of your truth as they follow in the steps of Jesus and his Apostles and guide us to your Kingdom of justice and peace.

We ask this in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ, and through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Candidate Questionnaire Project

The Church Questions Policymakers

"An authentic faith...always involves a deep desire to change the world, to transmit values, to leave this earth somehow better than we found it." - Evangelii Gaudium, no. 183

As Catholics, we are called to participate in public life in a manner which is consistent with the mission of our Lord, with well-formed consciences and with hope. In an effort to assist Catholic voters and the broader community, the Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops conducts the Candidate Questionnaire Project (CQP) each election cycle. Being familiar with candidates' positions on issues involving human life, dignity and the common good is essential to responsible, faithful citizenship.

Hymnal Dedication Intentions

We are pleased to offer to the Parish an opportunity to dedicate one or more of these hymnals, "in honor of", or "in memory of" a loved one.

A $25.00 donation per hymnal will provide one dedication intention, which will be affixed to the inside front cover of the hymnals. The hymnal will then be placed in the Church for use by the parish.

If you are interested in dedicating one or more hymnals, please pick up an order form in the vestibule/Narthex and return to the parish office along with your payment.

How might we give thanks this month for the many blessings in our parish and local communities that result from the good stewardship of parishioners?

Know the Positions of the Presidential Candidates

In keeping with its mission, the Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops (FCCB) aims to educate and inform Catholics about a wide range of issues. The information listed here has been compiled from policies, public statements, official and campaign websites and other resources to help voters form their consciences before entering the voting booth. The issues that appear here do not represent a complete list of issues that may be of importance to Catholics. The FCCB neither supports nor opposes any candidate for public office.

"The right to life implies and is linked to other human rights—to the basic goods that every human person needs to live and thrive. All the life issues are connected, for erosion of respect for the life of any individual or group in society necessarily diminishes respect for all life. The moral imperative to respond to the needs of our neighbors—basic needs such as food, shelter, health care, education, and meaningful work—is universally binding on our consciences and may be legitimately fulfilled by a variety of means. Catholics must seek the best ways to respond to these needs....Above all, the common outcry, which is justly made on behalf of human rights—for example, the right to health, to home, to work, to family, to culture—is false and illusory if the right to life, the most basic and fundamental right and the condition for all other personal rights, is not defended with maximum determination." (Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, Nos. 25, 26, U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, 2015)

DEMOCRAT
Hillary Clinton

REPUBLICAN
Donald Trump

ABORTION

"I believe we need to protect access to safe and legal abortion, not just in principle but in practice," Clinton said at a rally in January.

Clinton supports the repeal of the Hyde Amendment and the Democratic Party Platform states, "We will continue to oppose—and seek to overturn—federal and state laws and policies that impede a woman's access to abortion, including by repealing the Hyde Amendment." The Hyde Amendment restricts the use of federal funds to pay for abortions.

While Trump previously described himself as "pro-choice," in August 2015 Trump said he has "very much evolved" on the issue of abortion and "I am pro-life." He said he supports exceptions in the case of rape, incest and when the life of the mother is at risk.

No statement by Trump on the Hyde Amendment could be found, but the Republican Party Platform calls for "codification" of the Hyde Amendment, "We call for a permanent ban on federal funding and subsidies for abortion and healthcare plans that include abortion coverage."

DEATH PENALTY

During a February 2016 debate, Clinton said regarding the death penalty, "I do for very limited, particularly heinous crimes, believe it is an appropriate punishment, but I deeply disagree with the way that too many states still are implementing it."

In 2011, Trump said he is "very much in favor of the death penalty."

DOCTOR PRESCRIBED SUICIDE

During a February Town Hall Meeting, Clinton said doctor prescribed suicide "is a crucial issue that people deserve to understand from their own ethical, religious, faith-based perspective...I want as president to try to catalyze that debate." The Democratic Party Platform makes no mention of doctor prescribed suicide.

No statement by Trump on this issue could be found, but the Republican Party Platform states, "We oppose euthanasia and assisted suicide."

EDUCATIONAL CHOICE

In 2007, Clinton said, "I'll tell you why I won't support vouchers. Number one, I don't think they're constitutional. But number two, I don't see how you would implement them without having a lot of people get vouchers for schools that would be teaching things antithetical to American values."

In his book The America We Deserve (2000), Trump wrote, "we've got to bring on the competition—open the schoolhouse doors and let parents choose the best school for their children. Education reformers call this school choice, charter schools, vouchers, even opportunity scholarships. I call it competition—the American way."

These comments, policies and statements are snapshots from each candidate's public career, campaigns and websites as of August 2016. For embedded links to these resources, visit www.flaccb.org. The candidates also represent the platforms of their political parties, which can be viewed at www.democrats.org and www.gop.com. Information appears here for informational purposes only and does not represent a complete list of issues that may be of importance to Catholics. FCCB neither supports nor opposes any candidate for public office.

HILLARY CLINTON

DONALD TRUMP

ENVIRONMENTAL RESPONSIBILITY

Clinton's campaign website states that her energy "plan is designed to deliver on the pledge President Obama made at the Paris climate conference" where over 190 countries agreed to reduce global greenhouse gas emissions and meet existing financial commitments to an international climate fund.

During a May 2016 policy address on energy, Trump said that in his first 100 days in office, "We're going to cancel the Paris Climate Agreement and stop all payments of U.S. tax dollars to U.N. global warming programs."

FREEDOM OF RELIGION

Clinton described the First Amendment Defense Act as "taxpayer-funded discrimination by those who cite religion as a reason to deny services to LGBT people nationwide." The First Amendment Defense Act would protect against adverse federal actions directed toward individuals and organizations whose religious beliefs and moral convictions indicate that marriage is between one man and one woman.

In a December 2015 letter Trump wrote, "If Congress considers the First Amendment Defense Act a priority, then I will do all I can to make sure it comes to my desk for signature and enactment."

HEALTH CARE ACCESS FOR THE UNINSURED

According to her website, Clinton will "defend the Affordable Care Act and build on it to slow the growth of out-of-pocket costs." Her plan would also provide health insurance for the lowest-income Americans by incentivizing states to expand Medicaid, and make enrollment through Medicaid and the Affordable Care Act easier.

According to his website, Trump "will ask Congress to immediately deliver a full repeal of Obamacare." He also said, "As we allow the free market to provide insurance coverage opportunities to companies and individuals, we must also make sure that no one slips through the cracks simply because they cannot afford insurance. We must review basic options for Medicaid and work with states to ensure that those who want healthcare coverage can have it."

IMMIGRATION

According to her website, Clinton will "introduce comprehensive immigration reform with a pathway to full and equal citizenship within her first 100 days in office." She will "defend President Obama's executive actions" to provide deportation relief for DREAMers and parents of citizens and lawful residents; "end family detention and close private immigrant detention centers" and "promote naturalization."

According to his website, Trump will build a wall across the southern border, paid for by Mexico. To defend the immigration laws, Trump proposes to triple the number of ICE officers (currently 5,000); create a nationwide e-verify to "protect jobs for unemployed Americans"; return "criminal aliens" to their home countries; detain "illegal aliens" at the border until they are returned to their home countries; defund "sanctuary cities"; enhance penalties for overstaying a visa; cooperate with local gang task forces and end birthright citizenship.

INTERNATIONAL SECURITY

According to her website, Clinton will defeat ISIS by "intensifying the coalition air campaign against ISIS fighters, leaders, and infrastructure; stepping up support for local Arab and Kurdish forces on the ground and coalition efforts to protect civilians; and pursuing a diplomatic strategy aimed at resolving Syria's civil war and Iraq's sectarian conflict between Sunnis and Shias—both of which have contributed to the rise of ISIS."

Trump said he would bring about the defeat of ISIS by destroying the source of its funding, oil and banks that funnel money to the organization, "take the oil...the oil that ISIS is pumping, where they're getting tremendous amounts of revenue. I've said, hit the banking channels. You know, they have very sophisticated banking channels... they're taking in tremendous amounts of money from banking channels."

MARRIAGE

In response to the Supreme Court's decision to strike down state laws defining marriage as between one man and one women, Clinton tweeted, "Proud to celebrate a historic victory for marriage equality."

In 2015, Trump said, "I'm (for) traditional marriage."

POVERTY

In 2013 while members of Congress were debating the details of the Farm Bill, Clinton tweeted, "What happens to kids in families cut from unemployment insurance & food stamps? They're #2SmallToFail, & deserve an equal chance to succeed."

In a June 2015 interview, Trump said, "We have to create incentives that they actually do much better by working. Right now, they have a disincentive. They have an incentive not to work." When asked if he would insist people work for food stamps and other welfare assistance, Trump said, "Well, you could - you could start looking at things like that...The problem we have right now, we have a society that sits back and says we're not going to do anything. And eventually the 50 percent cannot carry, and it's unfair to them, but cannot carry the other 50 percent."

REFUGEES DISPLACED BY TERRORISM

Clinton said the U.S. should do more to help Syrian refugees, "We're facing the worst refugee crisis since the end of World War II...I think the United States has to do more, and I'd like to see us move from what is a good start with 10,000 to 65,000 [refugees permitted in the U.S]."

Trump said regarding refugees, "It is a very, very disturbing thing that's going on in Europe. And we're going to have it over here, too. And they just can't do what they're doing...We're not going to keep them here. They're going back."

Our Mother of Mercy Outreach Services

Have you joined our "Share the Harvest" Campaign by bringing and collecting food for our less fortunate neighbors in the area? Consider doing so now, before the holidays. Our parish pantry opens four times a month and tries to distribute food to all who come. Often there is a shortage of food when our donations are down. This situation occurs during the summer and early fall. Please bring non-perishable food to church as soon as possible. If you are unable to donate food, consider donating a check to our parish, made payable to St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church Food Pantry. We appreciate your support and prayer.

Food for Thanksgiving tables would also be appreciated. Everyone likes to have special items for November; although we have to be restricted to gather non-perishable food.

Our parish has many opportunities for you to put your faith into practice. If you would like to volunteer for the Outreach Ministry, please call Sheila or Thom. Their numbers are listed in the bulletin. St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry is an equal opportunity provider.

We are the face to the poor in the community. The Catholic Church has a long history of helping the poor and sick throughout the world. We became the "Soldiers of Christ" with our Confirmation and now we have this opportunity to show the community that God does love everyone, including the poor.

*St. Mother Teresa said in June, 1977,
"To bring Christ to others depends on how we do what we do for the poor."*

Thank you for your prayers and donations.

Together, we make a difference in our area.
