Holy Communion

For the Homebound

Our Ministers to the Sick bring the Eucharist to the homebound and those in care facilities who are not able to come to Mass. If you or a relative would like the Eucharist brought to your home or nursing home, please call our Ministry to the Sick Coordinator, Mary Wresh 748-3639.

If you would like to serve the Lord by bringing Him to our homebound parishioners, please call Mary Wresh at 748-3639. Our Ministers to the Sick attend special training so they are confidently prepared and can focus on the Eucharist and our parishioner during their visit.

At the Hospital

When you or a loved one is in the hospital, please inform the staff at registration or later that you are Catholic and would like to be on the Catholic list so Chaplains and Ministers to the Sick know you are there and can visit you.

Anointing of the Sick

If you or a family member is in need of an Anointing of the Sick, please call the church office.

HEART TO SHARE

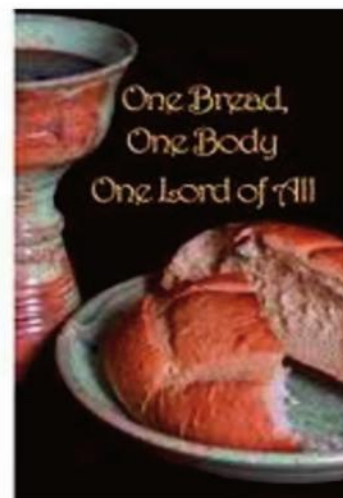

In a spirit of selfless love for God and others, with how much of your heart do you share your financial gifts, freely, sacrificially, and joyfully?

Reflection for the Week:

St. Paul wrote to the Corinthians
"We, though many, are one body,
for we all partake of the one loaf."
(1 Cor 10:17)

How are we using our gifts of time and talent to build up the Body of Christ?

A Stewardship Moment

Among the compelling Eucharistic themes proclaimed in today's readings is the notion of "participation" as found in Saint Paul's letter to the Corinthians. Good stewards are part of a Eucharistic family: loving, welcoming, serving. An important part of living as a steward comes about in the many ways we can participate in the life of the Church. No matter how much time we have to give, no matter what our skills or interests, no matter what our level of commitment, there is a way to participate as a good steward to enrich our lives and the lives of others to build up the Body of Christ. How do you participate in the life of your parish?

Heart To Share – June Stewardship Prayer

Dear Heavenly Father,

Give us the courage to live Your Gospel fully even when it brings risk, to share Your Word vibrantly even if it leads to scorn, and to respond to others generously even when we feel like holding back. Show us the way to live as good stewards of Your presence among us, and in doing so, may we shine Your light on a darkened world.

Amen.

Campaign Prayer

Loving God,

at this time in the life of our Parish,
we turn to you with grateful hearts for what we have,
and with great anticipation for what is yet to be.

Bless us with a sense of unity,
a spirit of cooperation, and a generous sacrificial heart
as we face the responsibilities and challenges of this

Capital Campaign.

We know there is much to do.

We believe our goals are rooted in Your Word and in Your Work.

Open our hearts to be generous
because of our love for You.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

"Temple and the Presence of God"
Presented by Deacon Dana
(Session 2 of 5) This Wed., June 21
Sessions 3-5 will be July 5, 19 & Aug. 2
5:30 - 6:30pm in the Prayer Room.

Among the many themes that run through the entirety of Sacred Scripture is the Temple. The related themes of Covenant and Temple are critical keys to aid us in understanding God's plan for his people. Temple is not only an important element of the Old Testament, but plays a key role in the Gospels and other books of the New Testament.

If you plan to attend please call or contact Frank Webber – see email below.

PAUL'S LETTERS

DID YOU KNOW...that St. Paul wrote his first letter to the Thessalonians between 51 and 53 A.D., some two decades before any of the Gospels were written? In fact, Paul never lived to see any of the completed Gospels of Matthew, Mark, John and Luke (who was so impressed by Paul's conversion story that he told the story three times in the Acts of the Apostles). In looking at what scholars call the three stages of the formation of the Gospels (life and teaching of Jesus; oral tradition; written Gospels), one could say that Paul was in Stage 2, i.e. he wasn't a witness to the life of Jesus personally, but he would have heard the stories from those who were witnesses. He would have had access to the oral tradition, and perhaps even some written pieces about what Jesus said and did. By the way, we don't know exactly what Paul preached. We have his letters to different communities, but they were dealing with particular matters and were not an attempt to replay what he preached about when he was there with the community. REFLECTION TO BEGIN
FORTNIGHT FOR FREEDOM
JUNE 21 - JULY 4

In the opening chapter of Declaration on Religious Liberty, the Council Fathers at Vatican II forthrightly declared that "the human person has a right to religious freedom." This right is founded upon the intrinsic dignity of the human person. From God's revelation we know the dignity of human beings resides in their being created in the image and likeness of God (Gn 1:27). Like God we are intelligent beings with a free will. Because of this we can know the truth and perform God-like actions, such as being loving, kind, forgiving, etc. Reason itself, in knowing what a human being is, confirms that we possess a dignity and worth that exceeds the rest of creation and that cannot be violated, but rather needs to be protected and fostered. (Go to www.usccb.org/freedom for more information.)

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

The feast of Corpus Christi is one time when our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament is exposed not just to faithful Catholics but to all the world. This is a time when Catholics can show their love for Christ in the Real Presence by honoring Him in a very public way. It is also a wonderful way in which we can show our love for our neighbors by bringing Our Lord and Savior closer to them. So many conversions are a result of Eucharistic Adoration experienced from inside the Church. How many more there would be if we could reach those who only drive by the church in worldly pursuits.

According to Canon Law (Can. 944 §1,2) "Wherever in the judgment of the diocesan Bishop it can be done, a procession through the streets is to be held, especially on the solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, as a public witness of veneration of the Blessed Eucharist. It is for the diocesan Bishop to establish such regulations about processions as will provide participation in them and for their being carried out in a dignified manner." Note that such processions can take place throughout the liturgical year but are "especially" encouraged on the feast of Corpus Christi. No other devotion has received such attention in the Code of Canon Law which shows the importance the Church attaches to this feast. It is one of the few feasts which is mentioned along with Holy Days of Obligation: "... the following holy days are to be observed: the Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, the Epiphany, the Ascension of Christ, the feast of the Body and Blood of Christ, the feast of Mary, the Mother of God, the Immaculate Conception, the Assumption, the feast of St. Joseph, the feast of the Apostles Sts. Peter and Paul, and the feast of All Saints." (Can. 1246 §1)

The full name of this feast is Corpus et Sanguis Christi or The Body and Blood of Christ. "The feast of the Blessed Sacrament was established in 1246 by Bishop Robert de Thorte of Liege at the suggestion of St. Juliana of Mont Carvillon. It was extended to the universal Church by Pope Urban in 1264. The office composed by St. Thomas Aquinas and customary procession was approved by Popes Martin V and Eugene IV. Celebrated in June, the first Sunday after the feast of the Trinity." (Modern Catholic Dictionary, by John A. Hardon, S.J.)

St. Juliana, a Belgian nun in Retinne, lived at the time of St. Thomas Aquinas and St. Louis. She received this inspiration from Our Lord for the following reasons: 1) that the Catholic doctrine receive aid from the institution of this festival at a time when the faith of the world was growing cold and heresies were rife; 2) that the faithful who love and seek truth and piety may be enabled to draw from this source of life new strength and vigor to walk continually in the way of virtue; 3) that irreverence and sacrilegious behavior towards the Divine Majesty in this adorable Sacrament may, by sincere and profound adoration, be extirpated and repaired; 4) to announce to the Christian world His will that the feast be observed. (Full Brief of Pope Urban IV in The Blessed Eucharist, Fr. Michael Muller, C.S.S.R., 1867; republished by TAN Publishers, Rockford, IL 1994.)

After the last Mass on this feast day Our Lord is placed in the monstrance. The priest then carries Him to four different altars representing the four corners of the earth. While processing, the congregation follows and sings. At each altar there are readings, prayers, and benediction. Compiled and Written by Michael and Carole Breslin

Questions Concerning Cremation, the Funeral Liturgy, and the Catholic Church

The Church and Cremation

Part 2

Cremation

When should cremation take place?

The Church strongly prefers that cremation take place after the full funeral liturgy with the body. The presence of the body most clearly brings to mind the life and death of the person and better expresses the values that the Church affirms in its rites.

This is the body once washed in Baptism, anointed with the oil of salvation and fed with the Bread of Life.

This is the body whose hands clothed the poor and embraced the sorrowing... Thus, the Church's reverence and care for the body grows out of a reverence and concern for the person whom the Church now commends to the care of God...

However, when circumstances prevent the presence of the body at the funeral liturgy, it is appropriate that the cremated remains of the body be present for the full course of the funeral rites, including the Vigil for the Deceased, the Funeral Liturgy, and the Rite of Committal. The funeral liturgy should always be celebrated in a church. (Reflections on the Body, Cremation, and Catholic Funeral Rites, Bishops' Committee on the Liturgy).

RECEPTIONIST - Part-time 20-24 hours per week. Must be service oriented, have strong computer skills and can multi-task. Please pick-up an application at the church office. No phone calls please.

Extra! Extra! Read all about it! Please recycle newspapers, magazines, catalogs, office and school paper, flyers and shredded paper in the paper only bin. Please do not put cardboard, cereal boxes, kitchen/bathroom paper products, phone books, plastic bags, plastic, glass, metals or trash in the bin.

Deacon Dana is teaching a five week summer course called "Temple and the Presence of God" which will meet next time on Wednesday, June 21 from 5:30-6:30 pm. Please email Frank Webber if you plan to attend.

Catholics Returning Home

Sessions are for non-practicing Catholics who are seeking answers to questions about returning to the Catholic Faith. No matter how long you have been away and no matter the reason please consider renewing your relationship with your God and the Catholic Church. The classes will be informal sharing and update of the Catholic faith. If you would like more details and to sign up, please e-mail the coordinator: Deacon Dan Pallo, e-mail address is: (deacondan2007@gmail.com) or you may call 352-391-9338.

Hearing Evaluation Study

Thank you to all of those who helped evaluate our needs for hearing solutions. We are in the decision making process, and will keep you informed when a decision is made.

Parish Happenings

LIVE Video Streaming 10 am Mass - Weekly

The Parish is pleased to announce that video streaming of the 10 am Mass will take place every week. An announcement will be made before the start of every 10 am Mass that videotaping will be taking place.

To watch the live Mass, access the link on our website www.sumtercatholic.org

Father Peter and Father John's homilies are now available on our website under the "Video Gallery" tab.

Watching the Mass online does not satisfy your obligation as a Catholic to attend Mass in person, celebrating as the gathered body of Christ.

Did you know that St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church launched our new "myParish" app for iPhone, Android smart phones and all app devices? This will allow us to better communicate with you throughout the week and keep you updated with relevant parish news or updates. If you have questions about the app, please stop by the Parish office. Don't forget to bring your phones or other smart devices.

To download the app - Text APP to phone number 88202, visit myparishapp.com, access your app store or scan the QR Code below:

St. Phillip at the Last Supper

Our Mother of Mercy Outreach Services

Happy Father's Day to the fathers of our parish. You are the example to your children by modeling integrity, honesty, hard work, and providing for your family.

Your love, sense of humor, respect for your wife, unselfish acts of kindness, and caring for your family are the way children learn to become good adults. Your behavior gives the idea to children of God's love and caring for them.

Our ministry works with the disenfranchised people in the surrounding community. Since Sumter County, at one time, was one of the poorest regions of Florida, many workers didn't have the opportunity for job training or living wages from employment. The result of the situation is that many seniors are living at the poverty level with little social security. Working families often need assistance during the summer when employers don't need as many employees because the population of customers has decreased. Children are home from school and don't receive their reduced or free lunch.

Jesus said to us: "For I was hungry, and you gave Me food; I was thirsty and you gave Me drink."

You can help! Please bring to church a bag of non-perishable food regularly or collect food in your neighborhood.

Thank you for your prayers and donations of food and checks made out to St. Vincent de Paul Church for the food pantry.

Heavenly Father, help us ease the suffering of your hungry children here and throughout the world. Make us your servants as we bring sustenance, care, comfort and love to those living each day in the midst of poverty, war, and drought. Through your grace, and in your name, we can perform the corporal works of mercy that save and protect the lives of children, women, and men at home and abroad. Amen. (Adapted from Catholic Relief Services)

Together we make a difference in Wildwood!
