Grand Knight Report

Brother Knights,

I had to check several times to realize that this information is being printed in the September Newsletter. Our Council and Parish had so many events on the July and August calendars that as we crossed them off we find ourselves in September planning.

Last year our Council crossed the milestone with its 10 year anniversary and this year that milestone was eclipsed by the new church building being dedicated and the altar and church walls being anointed. That is just one sentence but it starts the many paragraphs that document the eleven years of our Councils activities and enjoyment and four years of planning and constructing our new spiritual home.

Many parishioners came together to make the Mass of Consecration on the Feast of the Assumption a day to remember. I was pretty anxious about the start time. I knew Fr. Schweiger had it in hand but my concern was all of the ushers going to get the expected numbers of people in position for the start of the Dedication. Well even with a medical emergency twenty minutes prior to the start, the ceremony flowed as it was practiced the week before. I and others who expected to be outside listening even got seats in the church. This is truly a day to remember.

Msgr. David Hintz funeral the next Friday is another day that we will remember. From the pulpit it was said that the parish had indeed built a very beautiful church for Msgr. Hintz service.

I hope you enjoyed the photos of some of the Award Banquet honorees. Many commented that the buffet was very good this year. As I started this article stating how many events we had one right after another, I think we may have more Knights and their families at next year's Awards Banquet with the installation of some new officers. We will have the campus figured out, by then, as to where things are and where to have meetings and events will be spaced out in 2016.

So please read the rest of the newsletter and pick some activity to help with in the coming weeks.

Thank you, God bless you and your families.

Life Insurance as a Gift?

The initial reaction for many people when you mention life insurance as a gift is a quick step back and a questioning stare. “How morbid,” they think. While it may seem that way when you first mention it, life insurance is really a thoughtful gift that can be a financial life preserver in tough times.

The problem with life insurance is the general perception. Many think of death instead of the great benefits it provides, and the security that it offers – even while you’re alive.. Life insurance should be thought of as a precautionary protective measure for a family unit. The purchase of this product can mean saving your home, sending your children to college, and preserving your spouse’s quality of life in the event of your death.

One of the times you may want to purchase life insurance for someone is when a family has a new baby. It’s a great, low-cost way to set money aside for the future (i.e. college tuition, housing, business start-up, etc.). Of greater importance, it ensures these children will have insurance as adults, in case an illness later in life makes him or her uninsurable.

Newlyweds are also ideal recipients for life insurance. As they join their lives and financial responsibilities, young couples need to make sure that their early investments are fully protected. If something were to happen to one of them, the other may be faced with serious financial hardship. A life insurance policy is an ideal way to ensure their future and protect their assets.

As nontraditional as it may be, life insurance is a wise and caring gift to purchase for many people.
