GRAND KNIGHT REPORT

Most Worthy Knights, after 24 months of monthly elegant oratory from Past Grand Knight Steve Becker, I will try and do justice as I have large shoes to fill as I report to you each month in the Newsletter. Let me begin by saying how humble I am to have your trust in leading such a great bunch of Knights. I am just one more Grand Knight in a long line of great Knights, and I ask for your prayers as I try to equal their duty and dedication to you. July and my tenure started out with an admirable show of work and support for your largest fundraiser, the selling of fireworks. With the reality that our fundraiser is entering into realm of the work week, we will need to be conscious of the need for an extra effort to close up the event with greater numbers in the years to come so that it moves much more smoothly and timely for those workers that need to work the next day. Thank you for all that helped! Next event in my first month was an awe inspiring training event for new Grand Knights and Financial Secretaries in Columbus. It is true that we must spread the word that we Knights goal are to "Change lives, and Save lives". Knights who thru unity draw each other to Christ by selfishly giving ourselves to our council, church and community, change lives of those we are of service. With donations to the intellectually disadvantaged, we change lives. Our prolife efforts, prayers and mobile Ultrasound machines we have proven that we too save lives. Thank you for your efforts. Finally, at this writing we had 30 who participated in the Silver Rose prolife procession last Sunday afternoon. Thank you Past Grand Knight Steve Becker for making it possible for our church to share in the travels of this Silver Rose as it goes from Canada to Guadeloupe in time for the Feast of our Lady on Dec. 12th. It has been a good first month and so lets keep it up as the dog days of summer continue on. God Bless our Council. GK David Wilson

Life Insurance As a Gift?

The initial reaction for many people when you mention life insurance as a gift is a quick step back and a questioning stare. “How morbid,” they think. While it may seem that way when you first mention it, life insurance is really a thoughtful gift that can be a financial life preserver in tough times.

The problem with life insurance is the general perception. Many think of death instead of the great benefits it provides, and the security that it offers – even while you’re alive. Life insurance should be thought of as a precautionary protective measure for a family unit. The purchase of this product can mean saving your home, sending your children to college, and preserving your spouse’s quality of life in the event of your death.

One of the times you may want to purchase life insurance for someone is when a family has a new baby. It’s a great, low-cost way to set money aside for the future (i.e. college tuition, housing, business start-up, etc.). Of greater importance, it ensures these children will have insurance as adults, in case an illness later in life makes him or her uninsurable.

Newlyweds are also ideal recipients for life insurance. As they join their lives and financial responsibilities, young couples need to make sure that their early investments are fully protected. If something were to happen to one of them, the other may be faced with serious financial hardship. A life insurance policy is an ideal way to ensure their future and protect their assets.

As nontraditional as it may be, life insurance is a wise and caring gift to purchase for many people.

Submitted by ProLife Director Del Ridder from Gary Cangemi, used with permission. The cartoonist Gary Cangemi was been producing "Umbert The Unborn" for some years. Perhaps some of you have seen the cartoon in National Catholic Register. We have permission from Cangemi to use this specific cartoon in whatever way we choose such as sharing it with other KC councils, parishes, pro-life organizations and so forth. You are free to use or not use it as an education tool in your family or for whatever other use. We think the bible verses make a strong statement in support of the humanity of the unborn child in whatever stage of development he or she may be.
