

Hello Worthy Brother Knights,

I'm sure that you are aware that we're facing an unprecedented challenge, not so much a pandemic but the extreme measures that are falling into place to deal with it. Until further notice, all Knights of Columbus meetings, events, and gatherings are cancelled. While I can't speak for every parish or diocese function I can tell you that similar cancellations are being done across the board, including St. Patrick Fish Fry events, but please direct any specific inquiries to the appropriate point of contact. For instance, we are not providing Honor Guards for the Sacrament of Confirmation, but that doesn't mean that those rites are not being conducted. I've only been informed by the District Master that Honor Guards are suspended at this time.

While the ability to meet and gather is temporarily suspended, the work we do is not. If you or any Brother Knight or his family that you know of is experiencing a need we can assist with, please let me know immediately. This especially includes the widows of deceased Knights. No need is too small. No need is too large.

Fr. Samuel Beardslee broadcast the first parish daily Mass recently and March 22 was the first Sunday Mass celebrated and broadcast on Facebook. The letter detailing accessing the broadcast went out from the parish, which I forwarded to all on our e-mail distribution list. However, since we only have valid e-addresses for about 70 percent of our membership, some may not have seen it. If you need the instructions, contact Kathy at the rectory for a copy.

Father Schweiger is also looking for volunteers to help usher Sunday Communion distribution. Parishioners will sit in their vehicles until an usher invites them in so we are in compliance with the 10-persons guideline. Communion is distributed Noon to 4 PM. One-hour time slots need to be filled, so please contact the rectory or Father Schweiger directly to indicate your availability.

Saint Corona, Patron Saint of plagues and epidemics, pray for us.

Vivat Jesus, Jim
