

Dear Brother Knights,

I hope everyone's Easter season was great and faith-filled. As we continue in the Easter season, we completed programs to begin the Easter season and several programs coming up. Completed programs are the pancake feed which we served just over 100 people and the freewill donation brought in $873 for our scholarship endowment fund. For First Communion we had four Sir Knights stand honor guard and we gave out 35 finger rosaries to the kids that received their Sacrament of First Communion. We had our kick off meeting for the Walk to End Hunger. We have a lot going on in the month of May. To start, May 6th we have Join Hands Day at 8:30am and the Mass at the Holy Family Shrine at 8:00am. May 7th is the Major Exemplification at 1:30pm with candidates showing up at 1:00pm. May 20th we will be cutting four trees down at the Marian Mother House at 8:30am. May 21st we are having a CUF degree with candidates showing up at 1:30pm. If you are 1st Degree this would be a great time to exemplify into the 3rd Degree. On May 27th we will be putting flags out at Calvary Cemetery at 9:00am and picking them up on May 31st at 5:00pm. St. Patrick's Church will be displaying the St. Joseph's Icon from May 31st to June 4th, including a Holy hour after Thursday's evening Mass starting at 6:00pm. Please consider helping with some of the things going on this month. Also, on a side note, mark on your calendars that the annual Awards Banquet will be August 20th at 5:00pm. Finally, if you have a senior graduating high school or college the Knights have cords that they can wear with their gowns during the ceremony. Please let myself or David Wilson know so we can get the cords.

Vivat Jesus,

Grand Knight Patrick Dority
