

Dear Brother Knights,

It is hard to believe August is also here, which means the Nebraska football season will be here before you know. August is also the birth month of our founder Blessed Michael J. McGivney which is August 12th. I hope everyone has had a good and blessed summer. After the beginning of the July and all the work at the fireworks stand it was a quiet month. We had some great help at the fireworks stand and the coordinators and I appreciate all the help everyone gave for this project. Unfortunately our fireworks stand was slow this year but so we're all the fireworks stands that we talked too. After that Rod and I attended the Grand Knight, Financial Secretary, and District Deputy Seminar in Kearney. There was a lot of great information that came out of the Seminar and some things that I believe that our council will benefit from. As August is here there is a lot going on.

Beginning with August 6th is the Walk to End Hunger that we help sponsor, so please help with this great program and if you can't make it to help with the event at Pius X High School, please consider donating food for this great cause. Next we have a CUF Degree on August 13th with the candidates showing up at 1:30pm and the degree beginning at 2:00pm. Anyone that is a 1st or 2nd degree should come and do the degree so they can become a 3rd degree knight. Later at night on the 13th is the Matt Maher concert out at the Our Lady of Good Counsel retreat house. The next weekend is a packed with lots of events starting Friday night with the Altar Servers night at the Saltdogs game with fireworks after the game. Then on Saturday our council and church will receive the Silver Rose as it makes it way from Canada to Mexico, we will have a prayer service at 5:00pm before the 6:30pm Mass. Then on Sunday we have our Annual Awards Banquet and Installation of Officers starting at 5:00pm. This Banquet is being catered by Ricky's Cafe out of Hanover, KS. Please consider to attend this event as it is a good time and help congratulate all our award winners. If you have not RSVP for the Annual Awards Banquet please do so as we need to let the caterer know how many will be there. Mark on your calendar that on September 10th the PLES will be showing the film Fatima at 7:00pm. May God Bless you and your family.

Vivat Jesus,

Grand Knight Patrick Dority
