Dear Parishioners and Visitors of St. Mark and St. Paul,

Thanks to the Knights of Columbus there will be a pancake breakfast (with sausage and bacon) next Sunday, July 27, after the 10 AM Mass, at St. Paul. The pancake breakfast will be a fundraiser for the youth of St. Mark and St. Paul to attend NCYC (National Catholic Youth Conference) in Indianapolis this November. I urge everyone to come and support our youth in this effort. They are trying hard to raise as much money as they can for this youth conference. This conference will be held at the stadium where the Indianapolis Colts host their NFL games. This entire stadium will be full of youth from all over this country. It is quite impressive to see thousands of young people in total silence for the adoration and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

I have noticed that we have more than our usual visitors at both St. Mark and St. Paul churches for Sunday Mass this month. Thank you for coming and for taking time out of your leisurely schedule to come to church. As parents you are teaching your children a valuable and lifelong lesson in doing this. It also tells me that you take seriously the day you had your son or daughter baptized and you said yes to the question about raising your son or daughter in the practice of the faith. Now I know some of the kids look really tired on Sunday morning after being out on the water all day on Saturday. Some of them are sunburned and I know they have probably begged to just stay in bed on Sunday morning. Thank you for being good moms and dads. My mother would have done the same thing.

May God bless you and your family and our parish families of St. Mark and St. Paul.

Thank you.

Fr. Brad
