Dear Parishioners and Visitors of St. Mark and St. Paul,

I cannot speak for you, but I need to go to confession before Lent is over. I want to celebrate Easter with great joy and peace in my heart. For that to happen, I need the healing that comes from the sacrament of penance. God certainly knows I am sorry for my sins, but that is not enough. You see, when I sin, I not only sin against God, but I also sin against God's people (the Church). The priest in this sacrament not only represents God but also God's people (the Church). I think of the one line in the parable of the Prodigal Son, when the son comes to his senses and decides to go home. Upon arriving home, the son says to his father, "I have sinned against God and against you." I need to hear those words of absolution from the priest that says, "I absolve you from all your sins."

Confession times are listed in the bulletin ; next Sunday at 2 PM at St. Paul and the following Tuesday at St. Mark at 5:30 PM. Fr. Brian Johnson will be here to help with confessions on Sunday. Fr. Bob Drury will be at St. Mark on Tuesday. On Wednesday, March 25 there will also be confession time for our Faith Formation students beginning at 7 PM (after Mass).

May God bless you, your family, and our parish families of St. Mark and St. Paul.

Thank you.

Fr. Brad

Hoping to lose some weight before Easter...

Why not give the Sacrament of Reconciliation a try?

Chances are you'll leave feeling a whole lot lighter.
