Dear Parishioners and Visitors of St. Mark and St. Paul,

Alleluia! Alleluia! Jesus is risen as he said he would. Happy Easter to all the parishioners and visitors of St. Mark and St. Paul. Know that you are in my prayers in a special way on this Easter Sunday morning.

Thank you to all who have helped in any way with our Holy Week services. There is a lot that is done with Holy Thursday, Good Friday, the Easter Vigil, and Easter Sunday. Each day has its own unique touch to it and that means someone must prepare the church for each celebration.

I wish to say a special word of welcome to Audrey McCoy who was baptized last night at the Easter Vigil. Audrey has been preparing for this moment for many months. She is a high school student at Caldwell County High School. Audrey was baptized, received the sacrament of confirmation, and made her first communion last night. Audrey as I said last night, "You are now as Catholic as Pope Leo." Congratulations and welcome, Audrey.

I plan to spend a couple of days with my family and return on Wednesday.

May God bless you and your family and our parish families of St. Mark and St. Paul.

Thank you. Happy Easter!

Fr. Brad

Pope Leo XIV's April Intention

For priests in crisis

Let us pray for priests going through moments of crisis in their vocation, that they may find the accompaniment they need and that communities may support them with understanding and prayer.
