Fifth Sunday of Easter Readings

Acts 6:1-7; Psalm 33: 1-2, 4-5, 19-19 6; 1 Peter 2:4-9; John 14: 1-12

Dear Parishioners and Visitors of St. Mark and St. Paul,

Next Sunday is an especially important day for five of our young parishioners. It is that time when these young men will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. Bishop Medley will be at St. Paul for the 10 AM Mass where he will administer this sacrament which will complete their initiation into the Catholic Church. I did an interview with them two weeks ago and they are ready for this sacrament.

There will be little reception for them and their families in the narthex of the church immediately following Mass. We also wish to welcome Bishop Medley to St. Paul.

This is a remarkably busy time for Bishop Medley during this Easter season as he travels to many parishes for the Sacrament of Confirmation.

We will soon be wrapping up another year of Faith Formation on Wednesday evenings. Thank you to all who help with this very important educational ministry in the church. Thank you to the teachers, parents, and especially to the students who come on Wednesday evening to learn more about our Catholic faith. During the summer months I have to say that I will miss seeing you at our Wednesday evening Mass. A special word of thanks to Susan Brinkley who is the coordinator for our Faith Formation. Thank you to all for your dedication.

May God bless you and your family and our parish families of St. Mark and St. Paul.

Thank you,

Fr. Brad
