Ascension of the Lord

Acts 1:1-11; Psalm 47: 2-3, 6-9; Ephesians 1:17-23; Matthew 28:16-20

Dear Parishioners and Visitors of St. Mark and St. Paul,

Happy Mother's Day to all our mothers. I remember many years ago I bought my mother a corsage to wear on Mother's Day. I would admit that I patted myself on the back for that little move. Especially when I realized that my two brothers and sister did not think about it. I thought my mom would be happy to wear it to church to let others know that one of her children thought about her on Mother's Day. Well, mother wore it but later asked me not to do that again. She said she likes growing flowers but not wearing them and that it is a waste of money to wear for an hour. That the flowers would wilt and be gone in a few days. I said okay and let it go.

A final congratulations to the five young men who received the sacrament of Confirmation last Sunday. Thank you to their parents and family and to their sponsors. May God always bless you Alex, Konnor, Sam, Scout, and Ethan.

I also want to thank all those at St. Mark and St. Paul who help in any way with the first Sunday Breakfast and the second Sunday lunch. Thank you to all who organize these get-togethers, to those who bring food, and to those who help to clean up when the meals are over. Thank you for stewarding your time in the church.

May God bless you and your family and our parish families of St. Mark and St. Paul.

Thank you.

Fr. Brad
