Dear Parishioners and Visitors of St. Mark and St. Paul,

This is graduation time for high schools and colleges. I wish to congratulate our two high school seniors, Katie Weston and Justin Klidzejs. For many years you have worked hard and now it is time for you to graduate. Katie is planning to attend Murray State University and Justin plans to attend the University of Kentucky. I wish you much success and happiness in the future. Your next level of education will be totally different and will at first be a little intimidating, but I have no doubt you will do well. Our plan is to recognize you at Sunday Mass next week.

I am not sure if we have college graduates from St. Mark or St. Paul but if we do I commend you as well. May God bless your future. Those of you who may have children or grandchildren “graduating” from eight grade or kindergarten I congratulate you.

I want to thank all educators of our young people of all ages. For over forty years I have been directly involved in the education of students. That means I have also been involved with teachers and faculty and staff during this time as well. I have witnessed the commitment and dedication of these people in so many ways. I remember well the bumper sticker that said, “Thank a teacher.” Yes, thank you for all you have done.

May God bless you and your family and our parish families of St. Mark and St. Paul. Thank you.

Fr. Brad

That They May Be One Movie May 19 and 20th

That They May Be One is a powerful docudrama exploring how the Holy Spirit has been quietly working across generations to answer that prayer. Through compelling testimony, historical insight, and dramatic reenactments of Pentecost and Jesus' prayer in John 17, the film reveals the Holy Spirit's work across denominational lines, calling the Church to renewal, awakening, and unity. It will be shown in Owensboro KY and in Clarksville, TN (very close to I-24 Exit 1 in TN).
