Exodus 34:4b-6, 8-9; Daniel 3:52, 53, 54, 55, 56; 2 Corinthians 13:11-13; John 3:16-18

Dear Parishioners and Visitors of St. Mark and St. Paul,

A warm welcome to all our visitors at St. Mark and St. Paul on this Memorial Day weekend. This is the first of three big holiday weekends of the summer. Many of you will be coming to the lake for a refreshing weekend of vacation with family and/or friends. Know that you are most welcome at St. Mark and St. Paul. I also want to assure you of my prayers for a safe weekend both in your traveling and while on the water. I certainly know the pleasure of boating. For over thirty years I had a boat and spent countless hours and days enjoying boating and skiing with family and friends.

This is also Pentecost weekend and the close of the Easter season in the church. Pentecost is also the birthday of the church. In our scripture readings this weekend we read of how the Holy Spirit came upon the apostles and the church was born. A few weeks ago, when Bishop Medley came to St. Paul for the Sacrament of Confirmation, he emphasized to the newly confirmed that the Holy Spirit makes us God's holy people. May we live this life as God's holy people.

Congratulations to JD Adams on receiving the SLIM (Servant Leaders in Ministry). This is a diocesan award given each year to a high school student in each parish based upon their leadership in the church and community.

This weekend at St. Paul, we will recognize our two high school seniors, Katie Weston and Justin Klidzejs. They will have graduated by this Sunday, and I want to wish them all the best in their future. May you always know you have a home at St. Paul and St. Mark no matter where your future takes you. May God bless you.

May God bless you and your family on this Memorial Day weekend and our parish families of St. Mark and St. Paul.

Thank you.

Fr. Brad
