Dear Parishioners and Visitors of St. Mark and St. Paul,

I wish to say “good-bye” and “God bless” to some parishioners of both St. Mark and St. Paul who have moved or soon will. First, at St. Mark, Doug McCartney. Doug has moved to Henderson, Kentucky and is now a member of Holy Name of Jesus Catholic Church. Doug has been a minister of Holy Communion at St. Mark for many years and has helped to lead the rosary before Saturday Mass. Doug and his deceased wife, Renee, lived in Henderson many years ago and that is where she was from. Thank you, Doug, for your humble service to St. Mark Church. You are already missed.

At St. Paul we will soon be saying good-bye to Ken and Theresa Negray. They are moving to Paducah. Ken and Theresa have both expressed to me that it is time they downsize their living situation. They have lived in Princeton for fifty-two years and have been active members at St. Paul in a variety of ministries over the years. In my brief time here, Ken has been a lector, minister of Holy Communion, and he and Theresa have been ushers. They were also instrumental in helping me with the renovation of the rectory, especially the preparing and serving lunch for the workers.

For several years Ken and Theresa have headed the Second Sunday luncheons at St. Paul. Hopefully, beginning with the Second Sunday in November someone will come forward to work in this important ministry of the parish at St. Paul. Ideally, I would like to have four teams of two people whereby we could rotate the Sundays. That way a team would only have to do a Second Sunday three or four times a year. Anyone interested in helping with the Second Sunday luncheon please talk to me.

May God bless you and your family and our parish families of St. Mark and St. Paul.

Thank you.

Fr. Brad

Busy Evening at St. Mark's

Last Saturday we celebrated the Sacred Liturgy of the Mass. Next we celebrated the Baptism of Elena Leigh Kerewich.

Later, we had a potluck and Trivia Night. Thanks to all who participated.

Our trivia winners were community members, not parishioners.
