Dear Parishioners of St. Mark and St. Paul,

This Sunday is the feast of All Saints. This feast day has always been one of my favorites to celebrate. I think of so many great men and women over the centuries who have been declared a saint. What a rich tradition we have as Catholics to celebrate these wonderful people. But it is also a special day to celebrate the lives of people we are certain that have been awarded heaven. I think of my grandparents, uncles, and aunts. I also think of the many teachers who taught me in school beginning with the first grade. There are so many people who have been instrumental in my life, and I give God thanks today for their influence on me.

This is also the first Sunday of the month which means at St. Mark there will be breakfast after the 8 AM Mass. There seems to be a steady group of people who look forward to this first Sunday breakfast. It seems a tradition has been established and that is good.

This also means that next Sunday there will be the second Sunday luncheon at St. Paul. There has been a slight change of plans for this second Sunday luncheon. It will be the second Sunday breakfast this month, and the Knights of Columbus will be working on the breakfast. This will be a fundraiser for our youth who need to raise funds for their travels to youth events. Please prepare to make a donation for this worthy cause.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to the parishioners at St. Paul who came forward to say they will help with the future second Sunday luncheons. There were ten people who said they would help. That means there five two-person teams to do this ministry for St. Paul. Thank you for that commitment. I am presently putting together a list of the responsibilities as well as a schedule. This rotation will start in December.

May God bless your family and our parish families of St. Mark and St. Paul.

Thank you.

Fr. Brad
