

History of SCB

By: Ann
Class of 2006

1960

St. Charles Borromeo's
beginning was on July 25, 1960.
The first pastor of the parish was Rev. Carroll Guenther.

The land was purchased from the Kaczmarowski family for the future
combined school and church.

★ 1961 ★

They used the Wisconsin Telephone Company for a temporary place to worship each weekend until the church was completed.

The present church and school was completed in 1961. The building was dedicated in the fall.

1963

In the summer of 1963, 4 Franciscan Sisters of St. Joseph from Hamburg, New York arrived.

They had no living space so an area in the school was reconstructed to provide living space for them.

★ 1963 (Continued) ★

In October of 1963 there was an addition because of the amount of increasing children. They added a hall and 5 new classrooms.

1964

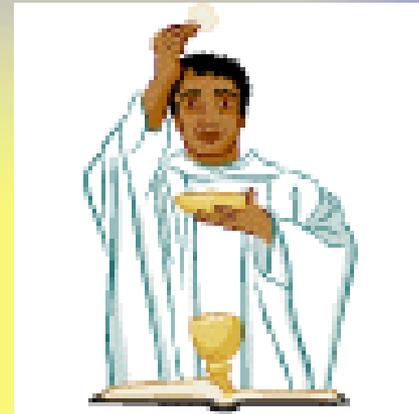

Rev. Oswald Krussing became pastor. A year later, a convent was built on the other side of the parking lot.

Ten sisters moved into the convent and the living spaces in the school were made into more classrooms.

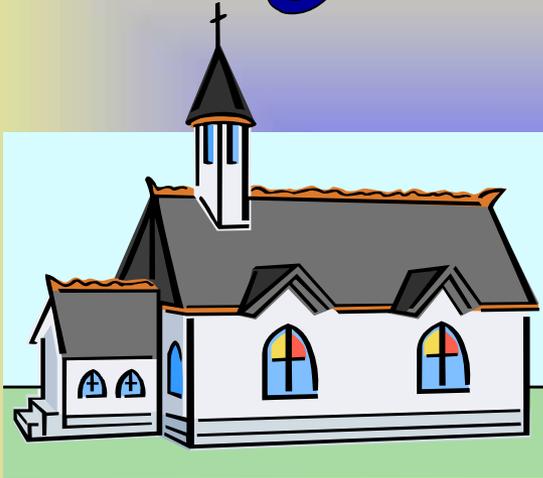

★ 1966-1969 ★

In 1966, Rev. William Zelly was made the third pastor of St. Charles Borromeo.

He gave the direction to build the rectory.

★ 1971-1995 ★

In 1971 Rev. Edward Safiejko was assigned as pastor. A renovation of the church took place in the summer of 1995. They celebrated mass in the hall.

The remodeled church was dedicated in November by Archbishop Rembert Weakland

★ 2000 ★

In January of 2000, Rev. Anthony Zimmer became pastor at St. Charles Borromeo

When he came, the programs we have expanded and new ones we established.

★ 2002 ★

In 2002, a capital campaign was begun to start a building project. This project would include a new gathering space, a bell tower, a chapel, gymnasium, new library, technology room, science lab, extra classrooms, meeting rooms, and a new office.

★ 2003 ★

The groundbreaking for this project took place in June of 2003.

THE END!!!