Today is Good Shepherd Sunday and Vocation Sunday. As April 19th is my ordination anniversary, we nine priests got ordained by Archbishop Peter Fernando on April 19, 2009. Kindly keep me in your prayers and remember all the seminarians studying for our diocese in this Vocation Sunday.

The word of God presents us with two images, the Children of God and the Good Shepherd. In today's gospel passage, Jesus emphasizes the self-sacrificing element in his own life that he is the good shepherd who is laying down his life for his sheep. He contrasts the good shepherd who owns the sheep to someone who is simply hired to look after them. The scriptures tell us of the extraordinary love of God for us has taken in Jesus the form of the Good Shepherd. The image of the Good Shepherd was perhaps the favorite early Christian image of our Savior and has a long tradition in the history of God's people.

Jesus uses the imagery of the shepherd from the ordinary usage of life and calls himself the Good Shepherd. During the time of Jesus, the shepherd of the Middle East had a close, intimate relationship with a smaller flock. The Shepherd was in charge of them and would lead them out to pasture daily while spending all his time with them. He took personal care of them and Jesus says that he had a deep sense of commitment and responsibility towards his own sheep. He was concerned about the sheep and hence they had the attraction towards him. Every good shepherd knew every one of his sheep by name and he was aware that his sheep also knew him. This showed the intimate knowledge of the shepherd.

As we celebrate Good Shepherd Sunday, let us ask the Lord that we may be his good sheep, listening attentively to his voice, and following his example of self-giving love.

In 4th grade we start our mornings by reading and depicting a Bible story. Math time capped off with the joy of battling friends and conquering enemies on Boddle. Language Arts is transitioning to use our reading skills to dive into novels, our first is "There's A Boy in the Girls Bathroom" by Louis Sachar. We work on writing skills through typing and recently completed artistic Poetry Journals. In March, we celebrate March Madness through Picture-Book Book Madness. We use our reading and writing skills to work through our Social Studies where we learn about the United States, our history, and the different regions working together to make our Nation.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS
IN SERVICE TO ONE. IN SERVICE TO ALL.

In accordance with our First Principle of Charity, the Knights of Columbus, local Council #881, St. Agnes and St. Felix, raised over $2,600 in the past three years. Proceeds went to support the St. Felix Church and School for teacher appreciation luncheon, Baptism gifts, Faith Formation, Eucharistic Congress, First Communion and Confirmation, and the Stations of the Cross restoration. The proceeds from our Pancake Breakfasts, and other fund-raising events support these worthy causes.

Additionally, the Knights made donations to local charities including: Great River Homes, Wabasha Food Share, Immaculate Heart of Mary Seminary in Winona, the Bishops Rector Dinner, the Seminarians Education Fund, and the Minnesota Peoples with Intellectual Disabilities Special Olympics. We served hamburgers, brats and beverages at the parish Fall Festival, served Welcome (Coffee & Doughnuts) Sundays, set the St. Felix Nativity display and performed various handyman projects.

All of our time is donated in accordance with our Second Principle of Unity. Together, there is nothing that we can't accomplish! What better way to live out your Faith as Catholic a man? The time commitment is only whatever you choose to give. Won't you consider joining us?

Our Third Principle is Fraternity: Knights taking care of Knights and their families. We offer world-class life insurance, financial planning and investments as well as student scholarship programs to our members and their families. Every husband and father must provide for the financial security of his spouse and children. Our example is the blessed St. Joseph, husband to Mary, and earthly foster-father to Jesus.

We will be holding our annual membership drive the weekend of April 27th and 28th. We are looking for a few good men. Knights of Columbus: In service to One. In service to All!
