Ryan Saltness Seminarian

As Fr. Tom has forewarned, this weekend is my final weekend at St. Felix and St. Agnes for the summer. I will spend the next 4 days with my family and make my way back to school on Friday, September 5th. I will then begin the year with some classes in the seminary followed by our annual week-long retreat the 14th-20th of September. I will be praying for you all and ask for your prayers in return. Additionally, please pray for the 18 men of our seminary community to be ordained deacons on October 2nd!

Most importantly, I want to thank you all for your hospitality this summer. Summertime always goes by way too fast and that has certainly been my experience of the past 9 weeks. I am extremely grateful for the time I got to spend with many of you and only wish there could be more time to get to know you more. Some of my highlights were some great shared meals, ziplines and high ropes courses at Camp Summitt, and the 125-years celebration at St. Agnes! We welcomed people into the Church through the Sacraments, gathered for the Eucharist, and celebrated the kids being back to school. God is doing some incredible things through this community. For those of you who lost loved ones this summer, it was also incredibly humbling and meaningful to be with you and pray for you through the difficult times.

Additional thank you's to the staff. Thanks Heather and Kathy for all you do for the community and always inviting me into the "behind the scenes" work of running a parish. Patrick, thanks for all you do for the kids and youth and always inviting me to be a part of fun, meaningful activities you help put on. Mr. Sonnek, thank you for inviting me into the school community and all you do for the kids. Willard, thanks for keeping our spaces nice and for installing our beloved AC system in the Rectory. Deacon John, thank you for being a great model of service and showing me how to get rid of unwanted critters in the sacristy. Thank you Serra Club for all you do for supporting Vocations!

Finally, a thank you is certainly owed to Fr. Tom. This all became possible through his willingness and invitation. I am grateful for all that I learned through his wisdom, experience, and the priesthood he lives everyday through this community. Grazie mille Padre!

I hope to see you all again in the near future. Until then, see you in the Eucharist!

With prayers from the heart of the Church,
Ryan Saltness

Fr. Tom Loomis Pastor

On Thursday's throughout the year we have Adoration at St. Felix from 8:30 until 7:00 p.m. I would invite you to please stop by and pray for a few minutes every Thursday or, if you're available, stop by for an hour. I would ask that you come and pray for our parishes of St. Felix and St. Agnes. Pray that we are guided by the Holy Spirit and that we will follow where Jesus is inviting us to go. Our prayer is unbelievably powerful as we journey together as a community of faith.

Thank you for an amazing experience of Eucharist, community, prayer, food, etc. as we gathered at St. Agnes to celebrate 125 years of faith last Sunday. We did not take for granted what a gift St. Agnes has, and continues to be for the Kellogg area, our families and for ourselves. The Spirit was alive and let's pray that we will allow the Spirit to light the fire of faith in each and every one of us. Thank you to the St. Agnes community for sharing your faith and love.

St. Felix Catholic School Eric Sonnek, Principal

Tuesday Morning Rosary

As we begin the school year, I'd like to invite parents, students, staff and parishioners to join me by the school bell every Tuesday morning at 7:30 am to pray a decade of the rosary. Together we will pray for God's continued blessings on our school, parish, and for any special needs in our community.

Virtue of the Week-Justice

Meaning-Enables one to give to each, beginning with God, what is due him.

Opposing Traits- Failing to see what is owed to each by virtue of his dignity.

Ways to Cultivate-Recognize what is due to God first then to others.

Prayer-Dear Jesus, You are the Author of all life, and I give You praise. Help me see and serve You in everyone I meet today.
