Welcome to everyone who is in town for the Watermelon Festival. We are glad you are here to pray and worship with us. Next week we will celebrate the St. Felix Fall Festival. Many festivals, church dinners, etc. going on this month. These are great ways to get together and gather as a community. The work that goes into these events is much appreciated. Thank you to everyone who volunteers. You are appreciated.

We still continue to mourn and pray with the Catholic community at Annunciation where terrible violence took place last week. It is a reminder that evil does exist in this world. We continue to have conversations at St. Agnes and St. Felix about how we can remain safe. What are ways we can prepare to be as safe as possible. I know these are hard conversations to have, but we have to have them.

As we gather to celebrate the Eucharist this weekend, we will hear from Luke 14:25-33. The idea of hating others today in the Gospel centers around priorities. For many we understand that Jesus is asking for us to put him at the center of our lives. I would guess that when we stop and reflect on what Jesus is asking, our experiences in life would tell us that he is speaking the truth. We know that when Jesus is at the center, our lives and relationships seem to be more lifegiving and healthy. When Jesus is not at the center of our lives we know what that struggle can be like. This week I will pray about and reflect on what it will look like for Jesus to be at the center of who and what I am. What might that look like this week in your life and mine?

Tuesday Morning Rosary

As we begin the school year, I'd like to invite parents, students, staff, and parishioners to join me by the school bell every Tuesday morning at 7:30 am to pray a decade of the rosary. Together we will pray for God's continued blessings on our school, parish, and for any special needs in our community.

Virtue of the Week

Virtue- Orderliness

Meaning- Keeping oneself physically clean and neat and one's belongings in good order.

Opposing Trait- Disorder with regard to one's space and physical appearance.

Ways to Cultivate- Establish order in one's daily life; keep one's space and appearance orderly and clean.

Prayer- O Infinite Beauty, in Your wisdom, You created all things with perfect order. Orderliness brings peace, beauty, harmony, and joy! Please help me to keep order in my own life so that I may respect those things You have entrusted to me.

As we begin our second week of school, I asked some of our students this question:

They are Pat Kolb (Sun), Cameille Gohl (Mon), Linda Schaefer (Tues), Jane Timm (Wed), Sandra Allaire (Thurs), Katherine Hust (Fri) and Nancy Hust (Sat). Just recently they met to pray their recommitment prayer.
