Please return completed Faith Formation forms by September 19.

St. Felix Catholic School
Eric Sonnek, Principal

School is back in full swing and first grade has been working very hard! During our first week we did a few art projects, wrote in our journals and learned about emotions and our Circle of Grace. Our classroom has a Magic Tree House theme this year, and we are really excited to read all about the places Jack and Annie visit. During September we will be busy preparing for the Fall Festival. We can't wait for you to see what we've created! During September we will be learning to identify nouns, act as good citizens, explain why shadows exist, and identify numbers based on their size. The first graders are so excited about learning, and we know it will be a fantastic year. ~ Mrs. Michelle Schumacher

We are still in need of a teacher's aide for the Preschool classroom. It would be weekly Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 7:45 am to 12:00 pm. Please contact the office if you are interested.

Adult Faith Formation Opportunities

Join us beginning Thursday, September 13, for a video series and discussion on The Wild Goose, Discovering a Deeper Relationship with the Holy Spirit. Also, please consider signing up to attend a local Catholic Couples Group that will begin meeting in October.

All Things Well: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Notice how personal and physical the drama is in the Gospel. Our focus is drawn to a hand, a finger, ears, a tongue, spitting. In Jesus, Mark shows us, God has truly come in the flesh.

The incident in today's Gospel is recorded only by Mark. The key line is what the crowd says at the end: "He has done all things well." In the Greek, this echoes the creation story, recalling that God saw all the things he had done and declared them good (see Genesis 1:31).

Mark also deliberately evokes Isaiah's promise, which we hear in today's First Reading that God will make the deaf hear and the mute speak. He even uses a Greek word to describe the man's condition (mogilalon, or "speech impediment") that's only found in one other place in the Bible—in the Greek translation of today's Isaiah passage, where the prophet describes the "dumb" singing.

What He has done is to make all things new, a new creation (see Revelation 21:1-5). As Isaiah promised, He has made the living waters of baptism flow in the desert of the world. He has set captives free from their sins, as we sing in today's Psalm. He has come that rich and poor might dine together in the Eucharistic feast, as James tells us in today's Epistle.

He has done for each of us what He did for that deaf mute. He has opened our ears to hear the Word of God, and loosed our tongues that we might sing praises to Him.

The crowd recognizes that Jesus is doing what the prophet had foretold. But Mark wants us to see something far greater—that, to use the words from today's First Reading: "Here is your God."

Let us then, in the Eucharist, again give thanks to our glorious Lord Jesus Christ. Let us say with Isaiah, here is our God, He comes to save us. Let us be rich in faith, that we might inherit the kingdom promised to those who love Him.

"Freely you have received, freely give." Matthew 10:8
