The Notes

America Needs Fatima Rosary Rally

All are invited to join us in prayer at America Needs Fatima Rosary Rally next Saturday, October 13. We will gather on the St. Felix Church steps following the 9:00 am Latin Mass.

Our Rosary Rally is sponsored by America Needs Fatima. We will be one of over 23,000 rallies that will take place across the United States that day. Please join us in offering reparation for the sins and offenses committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary and to fervently pray for the conversion of the United States.

St. Felix and St. Agnes have been involved in the Rosary Rally since 2007. The Rally usually lasts for 30 minutes. Bring your Rosary and join in this important mission of prayer. Contact Pat Kolb at 565-4743 with questions.

Thanks to everyone who joined us this weekend to pray with Fr. Michael Goodavish, and to hear him preach at Mass about this ministry that provides direct relief to the poor throughout Latin America and the Caribbean. Food for the Poor's mission is to care for the destitute as a means of living out the Gospel mandate to love one another.

THE WILD GOOSE

Adult Faith Formation Program

Please join us for Segment 5: Gift of the Holy Spirit to view a 25 minute video. The greatest gift of the Holy Spirit is the Holy Spirit! The living God gives the gift of himself to those who are baptized. From the Spirit flows other gifts, some of which are for our personal sanctification while others are for the building up and support of the body of Christ

The meetings are held Thursdays in the afternoon from 1:00-2:15 pm at the Hust home (612 14th St E, Wabasha). It will also be offered at St. Felix School on Thursday evenings from 6:30-7:45 pm. All are invited.

Faith Formation

Margaret Ogram, Faith Formation Coordinator

We are starting an online family study and discussion of the True Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist on Formed.org starting October 14. To open a Formed account, please go to wabashakelloggparishes.formed.org.

The discussion will be posted under the community tab, along with other materials to examine. New sessions will be posted on Sundays, with questions to answer.

All are invited to join us for our Faith Formation meal this Wednesday night at 6:15 in the St. Felix Auditorium. This week we are having PIZZA! Suggested donation of $2 per person.

We still have ice cream available! Contact Maggie to get some! We are asking $5 per container. Please also mark your calendars for our cinnamon roll breakfast coming up on November 4!

St. Felix Catholic School

Eric Sonnek, Principal

The annual Marathon for Nonpublic Education will be held on Friday, October 12. As well as being a major fundraiser for our school, the marathon is a great way for us to join together as a school "family," demonstrating our commitment to provide the best education for our students, an education that emphasizes social and religious values. All money raised or donated to the marathon goes directly back to St. Felix School.

Fall is finally here! Just as the leaves are changing, so are the fifth graders. We've had a great start to the school year. This month the students will finish their first novel study on The Bridge to Terabithia. They will then design their own Bridge to Terabithia BINGO game that they will play in class.

The fifth graders will also be studying great American explorers. After they choose an explorer and learn about his life, they will make a poster board and write a speech about their explorer. While giving their speech to the class, they will dress as their explorer. It is definitely going to be a fun filled year in fifth grade, where we are making our learning come to life. ~Mrs. Katie Daschner

St. Felix Cemetery Notice

Please remove real and artificial flowers from St. Felix Cemetery on or before October 20. Thank You!

What God Has Joined: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel, the Pharisees try to trap Jesus with a trick question.

The "lawfulness" of divorce in Israel was never an issue. Moses had long ago allowed it (see Deuteronomy 24:1-4). But Jesus points His enemies back before Moses, to "the beginning," interpreting the text we hear in today's First Reading.

Divorce violates the order of creation, He says. Moses permitted it only as a concession to the people's "hardness of heart"—their inability to live by God's covenant Law. But Jesus comes to fulfill the Law, to reveal its true meaning and purpose, and to give people the grace to keep God's commands.

Marriage, He reveals, is a sacrament, a divine, life-giving sign. Through the union of husband and wife, God intended to bestow His blessings on the human family—making it fruitful, multiplying it until it filled the earth (see Genesis 1:28).

That's why today's Gospel moves so easily from a debate about marriage to Jesus' blessing of children. Children are blessings the Father bestows on couples who walk in His ways, as we sing in today's Psalm.

Marriage also is a sign of God's new covenant. As today's Epistle hints, Jesus is the new Adam—made a little lower than the angels, born of a human family (see Romans 5:14; Psalm 8:5-7). The Church is the new Eve, the "woman" born of Christ's pierced side as He hung in the sleep of death on the cross (see John 19:34; Revelation 12:1-17).

Through the union of Christ and the Church as "one flesh," God's plan for the world is fulfilled (see Ephesians 5:21-32). Eve was "mother of all the living" (see Genesis 3:20). And in Baptism, we are made sons and daughters of the Church, children of the Father, heirs of the eternal glory He intended for the human family in the beginning.

The challenge for us is to live as children of the kingdom, growing up ever more faithful in our love and devotion to the ways of Christ and the teachings of His Church.

“Freely you have received, freely give.” Matthew 10:8

ATTENTION COUPLES, YOUNG AND MORE MATURE

In October, St Felix and St Agnes parishes will form couples groups with the intent to increase fellowship, enrich marriages and family life, and grow in our Catholic faith. We hope to begin meeting in November. The Pope described marriage as “a project to be worked on together” and a “process of growth” (Amoris Laetitia, no. 218, 221). A group would consist of three to four couples. Groups would meet at homes once a month for social time, a shared meal, a short video on faith, and group discussion. The meeting would be from 6:00 to 9:00 pm.

To sign up call the office with your names or contact Deacon John and Nancy Hust at 651-564-0051 or 651-564-1218. We plan to make phone calls to invite participation, so please be open to think about this opportunity.

Save the Date!

The 3rd Annual Mass of Remembrance will be at St. Mary of the Lake, in Lake City, on Thursday, October 25, at 7:00pm. More information to follow.
